Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten

Though Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten is one of the world's most famous chefs, his skills extend far beyond the kitchen. A savvy businessman and restaurateur, Vongerichten is responsible for the operation and success of a constellation of three- and four-star restaurants worldwide.

Born and raised on the outskirts of Strasbourg in Alsace, France, Vongerichten's earliest family memories are about food. After training in a work-study program at the Auberge de l'Ill, Vongerichten began his exemplary culinary career learning from some of the best chefs in the world, including Chef Louis Outhier at the Michelin three-star Restaurant L'Oasis in southern France.

To date, Vongerichten has published several cookbooks, appeared on numerous television shows including the "Today" show and "Good Morning America" and continues to apply his talents and forward-thinking vision to his restaurants, including PRIME Steakhouse at Bellagio.

"I think the role of a chef is not just to cook, but to create cravings." – Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten

Sirio Maccioni

After working his way up on a transatlantic cruise liner, Sirio Maccioni dazzled New York City with his charm and acumen for hospitality. At the famed Colony Club as a maître d'hôtel in the late 1960s, Maccioni developed his first taste for the restaurant business. Then in 1974, Maccioni opened what was destined to become a landmark-Le Cirque, which literally translates as "the circus" in French-at the Mayfair Hotel in New York and eventually at Bellagio.

Although over the years, monkeys, circus balls and tent shades have become symbolic representations of the restaurant, Le Cirque's most recognizable feature is Sirio Maccioni himself. Staying very much a family-owned business, all three of Maccioni's sons-Mario, Marco and Mauro-followed in their father's footsteps.

Experience the timeless sensation created by charismatic restaurateur Sirio Maccioni. The rarity of Le Cirque's 14th consecutive year AAA Five Diamond rating speaks eloquently of French cuisine—exquisite, bold, transcendent. Immerse yourself in a jubilant showing of brilliant color adorning this famed lakeside destination designed by Adam D. Tihany. Exuding a celebratory mood, Le Cirque's opulent dining room is enhanced with coveted wine and attentive service, which come together to amuse your taste buds in celebrated Maccioni family fashion.

Chef Julian Serrano

Award-winning Chef Julian Serrano is widely regarded as one of the finest culinary talents in the nation. His distinguished career includes two prestigious James Beard Foundation Awards for Best Chef: California in 1998 and Best Chef: Southwest in 2002.

In 1998, Serrano brought his memorable Mediterranean-French cooking to Bellagio in Las Vegas as Executive Chef of Picasso. The Michelin two-star restaurant has been a 16-time recipient of the AAA Five Diamond Award from 2002 to 2017 and has received the coveted Grand Award from Wine Spectator Magazine for its extensive wine list.

Serrano then turned his unerring eye to the cuisine of his native Spain as Executive Chef of his eponymous restaurant, Julian Serrano, at ARIA Resort & Casino, which opened in 2009. Here, Serrano satisfied a long-held ambition to share the secrets of his own Spanish cuisine.
