

TEXAS HOLD'EM

A game in which a blind is used (a pre-determined bet before any cards are dealt). A white button is moved clockwise around the table to each player after each hand to indicate who is next to put in the blind(s). Each player is dealt 2 cards face down, then a round of betting occurs. The Dealer then deals 3 consecutive community cards face up in the middle of the table ("the flop"), then another round of betting occurs. A fourth community card is dealt face up and then another round of betting occurs. A fifth and final community card is dealt face up and then the final round of betting occurs. After the last round of betting, all remaining players will turn their 2 down cards face up; the player who has the best 5 cards out of the 7 wins the pot.

OMAHA HIGH & OMAHA HIGH-LOW SPLIT EIGHT OR BETTER POKER

A game in which a blind is used (a pre-determined bet before any cards are dealt). No more than ten players may participate in Omaha High Poker. A white button is moved clockwise around the table to each player after each hand to indicate who is next to put in the blind(s). Each player is dealt 4 cards face down, then a round of betting occurs. The Dealer then deals 3 consecutive community cards face up in the middle of the table ("the flop"), then another round of betting occurs. A fourth community card is dealt face up and then another round of betting occurs. A fifth and final community card is dealt face up and then the final round of betting occurs. After the last round of betting, all remaining players will turn their 4 down cards face up; each player must use two of their own four cards (the cards dealt to them) and three of the five community cards to make their best five card poker hand. The player who has the best 5 cards out of the 9 wins the pot.

In Omaha High-low Split Eight or Better Poker, the player with the highest ranking five-card high hand and the player with the highest ranking five-card low hand shall divide the pot equally. A winning low-hand may not contain a pair, a three-of-a-kind or a four-of-a-kind or a 9, 10, jack, queen or king. In the event that none of the hands of the remaining players satisfies this requirement, the entire pot shall be awarded to the player with the highest ranking high hand.
