SCOUTING THE BOILERMAKERS

- Purdue went 2-5 in their last seven games to conclude the regular season. The Boilermakers scored 100 points or more twice this season against Big Ten competition (vs. Nebraska on Jan. 12 and vs. Rutgers on Mar. 4). Purdue is 2-2 when playing at neutral sites this season, as the program enters the Big Ten Tournament as the No. 20 team in the country.

- The Boilermakers are one of the most dynamic and efficient offenses in the nation. They made 38.6 percent of their three-pointers, which is the highest mark of any Big Ten program. Purdue also leads the Big Ten in both effective field goal percentage (57.0%) and field goal percentage (49.6%). The Boilermakers also averaged the second-highest assist-to-turnover ratio in the Big Ten (1.54).

- The Boilermakers are led by First-Team All-American and Big Ten Player of the Year Braden Smith. Purdue became the first school in Big Ten history with three straight Big Ten Player of the Year honorees. Smith averaged 8.8 assists per game as a junior, the highest among all Big Ten players. The 6-foot-0 guard recorded 10-plus assists in 12 games this season - including a 13 assist performance against USC. Smith also ranked in the Top Three in the Big Ten in steals per game (2.3), three-pointers per game (2.4), and minutes per game (36.6).

- Junior Trey Kaufman-Renn received First Team All-Big Ten honors as he ranked third among all Big Ten players in scoring (19.7 points per game). The 6-foot-9 forward scored 24 points and collected 10 rebounds against the Trojans on Feb. 7. Kaufman-Renn has been an imposing force on the glass. He averages nearly 2.5 offensive rebounds per game - the sixth highest mark of any Big Ten player. The Indiana native surpassed 1,000 career points in the final regular season game against Illinois this season.

TROJANS IN THE RANKINGS

Wesley Yates has ranked highly on offense during Big Ten play. He is finished the season in 10th through conference games when it comes to points as he is averaging 17.0 per game.

7

Desmond Claude knows how to get to the charity stripe. He is seventh in the Big Ten when it comes to free throw rate (55.0), which calculates his ability to make it to the free throw line.

9

Rashaun Agee has made his mark on offense. He ranks ninth in the Big Ten offensive rating, sitting at 119.2. This is based on using at least 20 percent of possessions, according to KenPom.

6

Chibuzo Agbo has had a great performance from beyond the arc. He is currently tied for sixth in the Big Ten when it comes to three-pointers as he is averaging 2.3 per game.

7

Saint Thomas is only player to start every game for USC and has been an impact player. He currently averages 33:25 minutes per game, the seventh-most in the Big Ten.

SHARING IS CARING

When it comes to distributing the ball, the Trojans dish out assists. Of the shots the Trojans make, 57.1 percent of those shots are assisted. The Trojans also contribute assists on 48.3 percent of their two-point field goals, which is in the 93rd percentile across NCAA Division I institutions.

Individually, Saint Thomas and Desmond Claude have been a big part of the equation. Both Claude and Thomas rank in the Top 10 in the Big Ten in assists as they are ninth and 10th, respectively, as Claude averages 4.2 assists per game while Thomas averages 4.1 per game. Claude is also 10th in the Big Ten when it comes to assist rate, which is calculated by the number of assists a player has divided by the team's made field goals. Claude currently boasts a 25.8 assist rate. Thomas comes up close behind him with a 21.4 assist rate, the 20th-best in the Big Ten.

YATES THE GREAT

Since Wesley Yates III has stepped into a starting role, he has been crucial for the Trojans. This season, Yates has averaged 13.8 points, 2.7 rebounds and 1.8 assists per game. Along with that, he is shooting at a 47.5 percent clip from the field. He is also the only player on the Trojans' roster to earn Big Ten honors this year as he was named the Freshman of the Week for his performances against Indiana and No. 13 Illinois.

He has built on his success as the season went on as his numbers have increased every single month. In November, Yates averaged 7.9 points per game while shooting at 43.9 percent from the field and 27.3 percent from three. He then ended February averaging 20.3 points per game while shooting at 50.0 percent from the field and an impressive 52.8 percent from three.

Not only did those numbers improve month-by-month, but they have increased heavily during the start of conference play. Yates is currently second in the Big Ten through conference games when it comes to three-point field goal percentage for those who attempted at least 2.5 shots per game from beyond the arc. He is shooting at 47.6 percent from three.

MINUTES ON MINUTES

When looking at the Big Ten rankings on KenPom for the percentage of minutes played, two USC players sit in fifth and 10th, and they are Saint Thomas and Chibuzo Agbo. Thomas comes in at fifth, playing in 83.5 percent of minutes. Agbo is right behind him in 10th, sitting at 79.5 percent.

BOARDS GALORE

Saint Thomas has been crucial for the Trojans this season when it comes to grabbing boards. He has led the team in rebounding in 15 of their 31 games this season. He also has 179 on the season, which comes out to 5.8 rebounds per game. When it comes to rebounding, he is also 12th in the Big Ten in defensive rebounds as he grabs an average of 4.7 per game. Josh Cohen has made a career of it. He grabbed his 800th career rebound against Penn State. He now sits at 819 career rebounds. Chibuzo Agbo and Rashaun Agee have also had great careers in rebounding. Agbo grabbed his 500th career rebound while Agee secured his 600th career rebound against Oregon after snagging a season-high 14.

THE DAYS OF DES

Desmond Claude has been instrumental for the Trojans this season. His 19.8 points per 40 minutes average is in the 91st percentile in the NCAA, according to CBB Analytics. He is also averaging 4.2 assists per game, which is in the 94th percentile across Division I teams. This all shows that he is a huge part of the team's offense as he is also fifth in KenPom's ratings when it comes to the percentage of possessions used as he utilizes 27.9 percent.

When it comes to making it to the free throw line, Desmond Claude has made it to the line the most on USC's team. He draws an average of 5.8 fouls per 40 minutes of play, the eighth-most in the Big Ten. He also has more than double the number of free throws as the next Trojan as he sits at 171 attempts this year. These numbers also show how efficient he is when it makes it to the free throw line. His free throw rate sits at 55.0, which is the seventh-best in the Big Ten according to KenPom.

LINE THEM UP

The lineup of Rashaun Agee, Chibuzo Agbo, Wesley Yates III, Desmond Claude and Saint Thomas is third in the Big Ten when it comes to observed offensive efficiency with a minimum of 180 possessions, coming in at 125.6, according to EvanMiya.com. The only Big Ten teams ranked higher are Purdue and Maryland. This lineup is who Coach Eric Musselman has used for the last three games. Saint Thomas is the only player to start every game for the Trojans this season.

BY THE HALF

When looking at the team's numbers in the first half compared to the second half, USC puts up some different numbers to look at. The Trojans have shot better in the first half compared to the second, coming in with a 48.9 field goal percentage in the first half compared to shooting at a 47.6 percent clip in the second. However, the team tends to score more points in the second half, averaging 39.4 points in the second half compared to 37.1 in the first half.

USC is also thriving when it comes to the corner three as they are in the 90th percentile for made corner threes throughout the season, shooting at 41.1 percent from that spot.

PLAYOFF TROJANS

USC stayed on trend and won their sixth-straight opening round game as they took down Rutgers in overtime. With that win, Coach Eric Musselman is also 10-0 when it comes to opening round wins in his team's conference tournament.

OUT IN THE COMMUNITY

The USC Men's Basketball tries to be a conscientious member of the community and has routinely had youth groups or schools visit practice or venture out into the community for an event over the last several years. The Trojans recently handed out backpacks in partnership with World Vision at the Barack Obama Charter School to kick off the new year back in August.

Not only that, but the team has done what they can to give back to the Los Angeles community following the Palisades and Eaton Fires. Upon returning home, members of the team and coaching staff volunteered in Pasadena and at the BMO Stadium to pass out supplies to those impacted by these fires.

IN THE NBA

USC had 11 former players who began the 2024-25 season on NBA rosters, which ranked in the top 5 among all schools. Opening night of the 2024-25 season saw Trojan Drew Peterson receive his 2024 NBA Championship ring with the Boston Celtics and Onyeka Okongwu recorded a career-high 28 points. Recent Trojan Bronny James also made history with his father and 22-year NBA veteran LeBron James on opening night, as the pair became the first father-son duo to play together in an NBA game.

THE REAL AGEE

Rashaun Agee had a career game against Oregon with 29 points, 14 rebounds and six blocks, and he followed that up with 18 points and five rebounds against Washington. He is the first player for the Trojans to earn a double-double this year. Not only that, but he is crashing the boards as he is seventh in the Big Ten in offensive rebounding percentage (10.6%). According to CBB Analytics, Agee is in the 96th percentile or higher in the following categories over the last five games: effective field goal percentage (69.7%), three-point field goal percentage (53.8%), true shooting percentage (72.3%) and steal percentage (4.4%).
