Where should I park?

There will be limited parking inside Eagle Creek Park on Saturday and Sunday. Once the park is full, spectators will park at the Mary & John Geisse Soccer Fields:

7225 W 56th St, Indianapolis, IN 46254

There will be NO parking along the roads or grass inside the park.

Please allow time to get through the gate and if parking at the soccer fields allow for 30 minutes to park and walk to the venue.

Limited ADA parking is available inside the park with a valid state-issued hang tag or license plate inside the park.

Is there a fee to attend the event?

There is a per vehicle entrance fee to enter Eagle Creek Park:

- $6 for Marion County residents & $7 for all others
- $1 per person fee to park at the soccer fields and walk into the park
- There is no additional fee to access the spectator viewing area once inside the park.

Can I visit the team area?

No. The team area is restricted and not open to spectators.

Will there be merchandise for sale?

Yes! Big Ten Championships t-shirts will be available for purchase in the spectator area.

Please note: CASH ONLY.

Can I bring my regatta/tailgate setup to the championships?

Yes. Tents are allowed in the designated spectator viewing area but must stay behind the tent setback line marked on the ground.

You may drop off tents any time after 5:00 pm on Thursday.

This is a public park, so please note that items left unattended are at your own risk. Keep tents to about 20'x20' in size so all teams have space.

Where will the awards ceremony take place?

The awards ceremony will take place on Sunday after racing has completed at the Indianapolis Rowing Center Boathouse.

Spectators can access this area via the Red Trail or by walking around from the main viewing area.

Limited ADA parking will be available at:

- The Beach Parking Lot (for race viewing)
- The Boathouse (for awards viewing)

Are dogs permitted in the spectator area?

Yes! Dogs are welcome as long as they are on a leash.
