Victoria National Golf Course

(officially opened - July 1998)

Formerly part of a vast, open surface mine, the 418 acres that make up Victoria National were filled with long trenches and mounds of excess earth. The club tenderly reclaimed and restored this land. Once open pits are now spring fed lakes. Once bare earth is now a Certified Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary. The course offers wildlife and a memorable golf experience time and again.

When master golf course architect Tom Fazio first walked this land in 1996 he stated; "I see a hundred great holes here. My challenge is to pick the most successful as he routed and designed what Golf Digest deemed the Best New Private Golf Course in 1999. Victoria National stands at #45 in "America's 100 Greatest Golf Courses" and is ranked by Golf Digest as the #1 Golf Course in Indiana.

Victoria National offers striking terrain, changing elevation, unrivaled course set-up possibilities (122 tee boxes) and crystal clear lakes on the fairways, lakeside views and dramatic rolling greens create a course that can soothe the soul and challenge even the most spirited players.

Round after round, Victoria National never fails to surprise. Every hole celebrates the challenges of traditional golf and every aspect of the course is in perfect form.

Victoria National Club House

The dream of building an incredible golf course became a reality in 1998 for founder, Terry Friedman. The golf course has taken its place among the best and ranks #45 in Golf Digest's, "America's 100 Greatest Golf Courses" and #25 in the Golf Digest index "50 Greatest Golf Retreats."

Victoria National changed ownership in 2010 and the Victoria Partners team has infused additional energy throughout the entire facility. The club features a lounge for up to thirty-two guests, a "Top 100" golf shop, Best in Class casual dining experience, dedicated meeting space and club programming for both golf members, half residing in the local area and the balance are national members representing seventeen states across the country. The club offers members to enjoy the casual elegance of Victoria National for dining, events and camaraderie.

Victoria National has earned its spot as "America's Private Retreat." An experience certain to be remembered all built on southern Indiana charm.
