NOTES

20 – This marks the first year that Crooked Stick will play host to the Big Ten Men's Golf Championships and the 20th time the Big Ten has held the event in the state of Indiana. The first year in the Hoosier state was 1947, when it was held in Lafayette. West Lafayette and Bloomington have been the host the most - six times each; followed by three-time host French Lick (2012-14); and Lafayette (1947 and 1955) and Newburgh (2015-16) with two apiece. The last time the Big Ten was in Indiana was at Victoria National five years ago.

ELITE GROUP – Did you know that only four players have won three (3) individual Big Ten golf championships – and two were from Purdue (Fred Wampler, '48, '49, '50) and (John Konsek, '58, '59, '60)? The others were Michigan's John Fischer in '32, '33 and '35 and the great Steve Stricker of Illinois in '86, '88 and '89.

FIRST – The first Big Ten golf men's championship was held in 1920 at Olympia Fields.

HEY, I HEARD OF HIM – Some of the past Big Ten individual champions you may have heard of: Jack Nicklaus (1961, Ohio State); John Cook (1978-79, Ohio State); Joey Sindelar (1981, Ohio State); Steve Stricker (1986, 88-89, Illinois); Shaun Micheel (1991, Indiana); Luke Donald (2000-01, Northwestern); Jeff Overton (2005, Indiana) and Thomas Pieters (2013, Illinois). Some veteran Stick members may remember that it was SINDELAR who finished Runner Up to Fred Funk in the US Senior Open here in 2009.

POSTSEASON SUCCESS – The Big Ten school with the Most NCAA Tournament appearances is Ohio State with 47 (ninth overall). Next on the list is Purdue with 29.
