The 113th Big Ten Men's Gymnastics Championships will be held March 31-April 1 at the Covelli Center on the Ohio State University campus in Columbus, Ohio. The meet will be conducted over two days, with the team and all-around competitions held on Friday, March 31, and the individual event finals taking place on Saturday, April 1. Rotations on both days will begin at 8 p.m. (ET). The 10 highest individual scores on each apparatus from the team competition shall advance to the individual event finals. In case of a tie, it shall be broken by the highest individual E judging panel score on that apparatus during the team competition. If a tie still exists, the individual with the higher national ranking prior to the Big Ten Championships will advance. A printed copy of the national ranking shall be available at the head table. One alternate shall be prepared in case of injury.

Both days of competition will be televised live on the Big Ten Network and will also be available on the FOX Sports app.

The rotation order will be as follows:
