MEN: Wisconsin secured its 49th Big Ten Championship and first since 2016, tallying 38 points while seeing all five of its scoring runners (and one of its non-scoring runners) finish in the top 20 at Mahoney Golf Course in Lincoln, Neb.

The Badgers, who posted a 1-2-4 finish in the individual race, recorded the best team score at the conference meet since 2012, when they registered 33 points in a winning effort. Wisconsin's 50-point margin over second-place Purdue was also the eighth-largest in Big Ten Championships history and largest since 2009, when the Badgers finished 65 points ahead of Ohio State.

Wisconsin senior Morgan McDonald earned its second individual Big Ten Championship in three years, completing the 8K race in 23:26.4, the fifth-fastest time in meet history and nearly three seconds ahead of his teammate and last year's medalist, Oliver Hoare and almost 13 seconds clear of Nebraska's George Kusche.

WOMEN: Michigan earned its 12th Big Ten Championship and third in a row, registering 57 points and placing all five of its scoring runners in the top 20 at Mahoney Golf Course in Lincoln, Neb. The Wolverines are the first Big Ten squad to win three consecutive Big Ten titles since Michigan won five in a row from 2002-06.

Wisconsin junior Alicia Monson took the individual Big Ten Championship, covering the 6K course in 19:49.3, the fifth-fastest time in meet history and more than nine seconds ahead of runner-up Aubrey Roberts of Northwestern, along with more than 23 seconds clear of third-place finisher Avery Evenson of Michigan.
