

2003-04 Wrestlers of the Week

November 19th

Tommy Rowlands, OHIO STATE

SR, HWT, Hilliard, Ohio/Columbus Bishop Ready

Rowlands recorded his second event title this season as he claimed top heavyweight honors at the Oklahoma Gold Classic Saturday in his first two matches, a 9-5 decision in the semifinal bout and a 3-2 decision over fourth-ranked Leonce Crump of Oklahoma in the final. Rowlands eclipsed 500 team points in his career at Ohio State, becoming the first Buckeye to reach 500 team points in OSU annals.

November 12th

Mark Moos, Michigan

FR, 125-lbs., Lorain, Ohio/St. Edward

Moos, making his season debut, turned in a stellar performance at the Michigan State Open over the weekend, posting a perfect 5-0 record. The redshirt freshman, ranked No. 13 at 125 lbs. by Intermat, recorded three falls and a pair of major decisions at the tournament, including the championship match.

November 5th

Ryan Churella, MICHIGAN

SO, 149 lbs., Northville, MI/Novi

Churella opened his 2003-04 wrestling campaign by claiming the 149-pound title at the Eastern Michigan Open on Sunday with a 6-0 fall and two major decisions heading into the finals. He shut out teammate Eric Tannenbaum 7-0 in the final match. Churella gave up

