BIG TEN POSTSEASON RELEASE (updated April 2)

For the 22nd consecutive season (not counting the 2019-20 campaign that ended prematurely due to the COVID-19 pandemic), the Big Ten is sending at least eight of its women's basketball programs to postseason play. Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Michigan, Ohio State and Purdue will compete in the NCAA Tournament, while Nebraska will represent the conference in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT).

The Big Ten's seven NCAA Tournament qualifiers tied the conference record for most schools selected in a single season, set three times previously (2012, 2015, 2022). For the second year in a row, the Big Ten also leads all conferences with the most top-four seeds (4) in this year's NCAA Tournament. The last two years match the conference record for the most NCAA top-four seeds (first set in 2005).

Indiana is the first Big Ten Conference program to earn a No. 1 seed for the NCAA Tournament since 2015, when Maryland captured a top seed during its inaugural season in the Big Ten and ultimately advanced to the NCAA Final Four in Tampa. It's the 10th NCAA Tournament that has featured a No. 1-seeded Big Ten program, with that top seed reaching the Final Four on four occasions (1993 - Ohio State; 1994 - Purdue; 1999 - Purdue; 2005 - Michigan State).

Big Ten schools have also enjoyed success in the WNIT, with current conference programs reaching the tournament semifinals 17 times (including six of the past eight tournaments with Rutgers in 2014, Michigan in 2015, 2016 and 2017, Indiana in 2018 and Northwestern in 2019) and winning the WNIT championship six times (Penn State - 1998; Wisconsin - 2000; Ohio State - 2001; Rutgers - 2014; Michigan - 2017; Indiana - 2018).

All NCAA Tournament games will be televised live on the ESPN family of networks. All WNIT games hosted by Big Ten schools through the semifinals will be broadcast live on B1G+, while road WNIT games through the semifinals will be televised by a variety of outlets as determined by the host school. The WNIT championship game will be televised live on CBS Sports Network.
