

AI Use Cases in Legal Practice

Corporate, restructuring and transactional

- Draft and redline contracts, nondisclosure agreements and filings
- Trawl documents to extract key terms, identify unusual clauses or find missing provisions
- Analyze contracts and other legal documents to assess compliance against company policies

Litigation and investigations

- Draft pleas, witness statements, testimonies, motions and settlement agreements
- Predict opposing counsel's arguments and analyze potential objections
- Estimate litigation timelines and assess settlement ranges
- Search for evidence
- Assist in case procedure management
- Prepare trial documentation

Review and categorize documents, prioritizing for human review

Analyze existing case law, statutes, regulations and secondary sources; identify precedents and supportive authorities

Extract legal obligations from statutes

Summarize new laws, policies and guidance from regulatory authorities

Conduct comparative law analysis

Administrative and HR

- Support environmental, social, governance and other reporting requirements
- Produce marketing materials
- Transcribe legal proceedings
- Coordinate human resources workflows
- Intake and screen new clients
- Draft attorney-client correspondence
- Capture billable time and generate invoices

Regulatory and public policy

- Analyze regulatory and enforcement trends
- Map issues and conduct horizon scanning for risk exposures
- Draft research memos, internal policies and regulatory summaries