

sky now TV

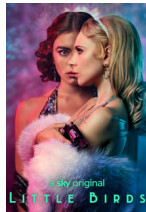

International Women's Day

Hello

Join us as we celebrate International Women's day with an expansive range of programming that celebrates female talent, both on and off screen.

From inspirational female figures that have broken gender barriers and left their mark on history, to the incredible female talent, writing, producing, starring and directing stories on our screens.

What follows are just some of the powerful stories both from women and about women available in March and April on Sky and NOW TV.

History Makers

Stories of real women past and present who left
a cultural mark on history

The Glorias

A Sky Original film biopic traces the life of journalist, fighter, and feminist Gloria Steinem known for her world-shaping activism, her guidance of the revolutionary women's movement, and her writing that has impacted generations.

The Glorias charts her time in India as a young woman, to the founding of Ms. magazine in New York, to her role in the rise of the women's rights movement in the 1960s and beyond.

Available from 7 March

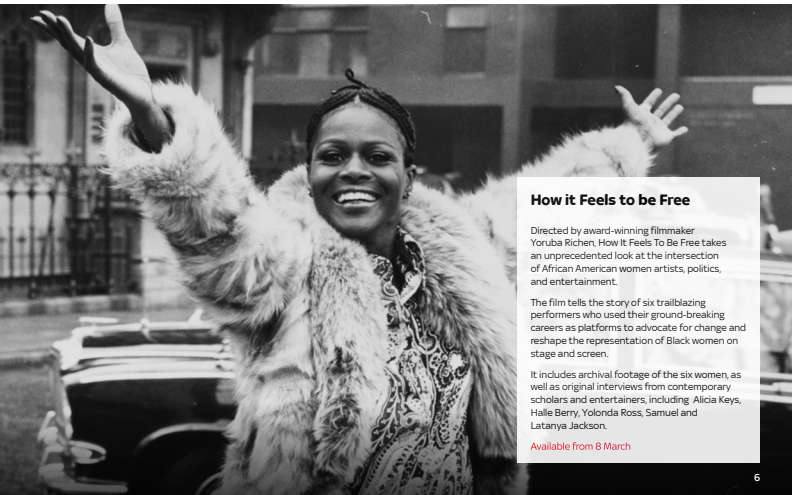

First Ladies

First Ladies is narrated by Golden Globe winning actress Robin Wright and profiles the former women of The White House - Michelle Obama, Jacqueline Kennedy, Nancy Reagan, Eleanor Roosevelt, Lady Bird Johnson, and Hillary Rodham Clinton.

Blending in-depth interviews, rare archival footage and cinematic recreations, First Ladies is a bold revision of each woman's traditional portrayal, revealing how they were impacted during their time in power and how their achievements fundamentally shaped American and global history.

Available from 8 March

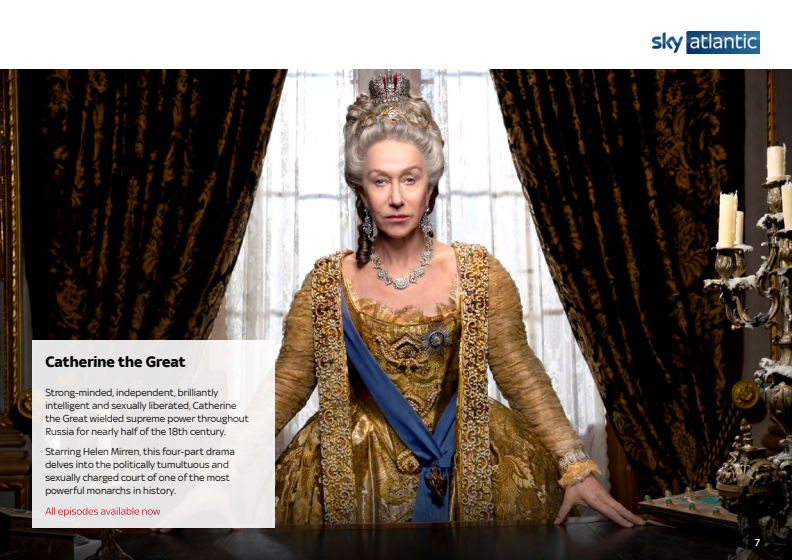

How It Feels to be Free

Directed by award-winning filmmaker Yoruba Richen, How It Feels To Be Free takes an unprecedented look at the intersection of African American women artists, politics, and entertainment.

The film tells the story of six trailblazing performers who used their ground-breaking careers as platforms to advocate for change and reshape the representation of Black women on stage and screen.

It includes archival footage of the six women, as well as original interviews from contemporary scholars and entertainers, including Alicia Keys, Halle Berry, Yolonda Ross, Samuel and Latanya Jackson.

Available from 8 March

A full-page background image of Helen Mirren as Catherine the Great. She is standing in an ornate room, wearing a highly detailed, gold-embroidered gown with a blue sash and a large diamond necklace. Her hair is styled in an elaborate 18th-century fashion with a tiara. She is looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. The room features heavy, patterned curtains and a large window in the background. To the right, a candelabra with lit candles is visible.

Catherine the Great

Strong-minded, independent, brilliantly intelligent and sexually liberated, Catherine the Great wielded supreme power throughout Russia for nearly half of the 18th century.

Starring Helen Mirren, this four-part drama delves into the politically tumultuous and sexually charged court of one of the most powerful monarchs in history.

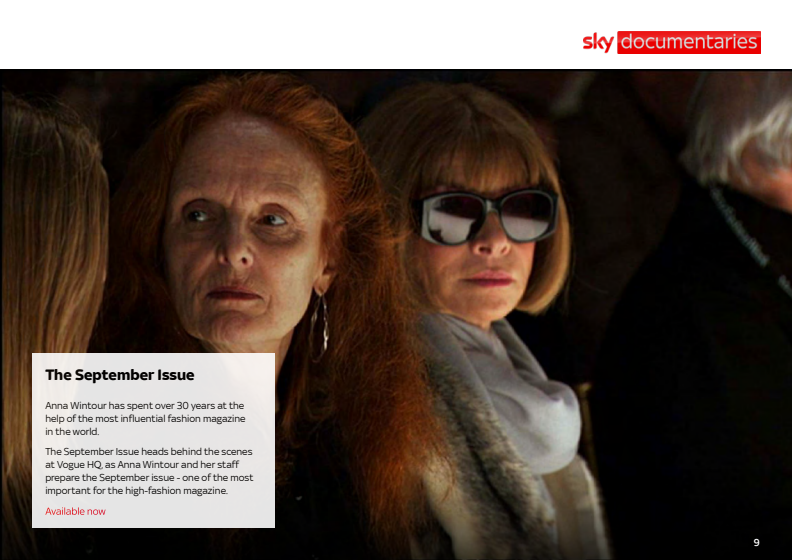

All episodes available now

Confirmation

In a case that ultimately drove political and institutional reform and increased support for victims of workplace harassment, Kerry Washington stars as Anita Hill, who in 1991 accused Supreme Court nominee Clarence Thomas of sexual harassment, her case leaked and the ensuing media frenzy brought the country to a standstill.

Available now

The September Issue

Anna Wintour has spent over 30 years at the helm of the most influential fashion magazine in the world.

The September Issue heads behind the scenes at Vogue HQ, as Anna Wintour and her staff prepare the September issue - one of the most important for the high-fashion magazine.

Available now

This Changes Everything

Created in association with Geena Davis Institute on Gender in Media, this is an exploration of gender discrimination and disparity in Hollywood.

With commentary and insight from Geena Davis, Meryl Streep, Cate Blanchett and Taraji P Henson.

Available now

The Battle of the Sexes

Tennis icon Billie Jean King is a pioneer for gender equality and LGBT rights. This documentary, exec produced by King, serves up the inside story on her iconic 70s tennis showdown against ex-pro Bobby Riggs.

With more than just tennis at stake, King battled Riggs chauvinist assumption that he could still beat "any woman" and put equality in sport under the spotlight.

Available now

The Rise of Fallon Sherrock

In 2019 Fallon Sherrock made darts history, beating Ted Evtets to become the first women to beat a man at the PDC world championships.

This documentary follows her meteoric rise in a traditionally male-dominated sport as she navigates her new found prominence.

Available now

Hillary

Nanette Burstein's four part docuseries is an intimate portrait of former First Lady and Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton.

Featuring never-before-seen footage from her 2016 election drive, with interviews from the people who know her best, from childhood friends to campaign aides, it's a intimate look at how she became one of the most divisive female figures in modern politics.

Available now

Made By Women

Highlighting the exceptional female producers, directors
and writers behind the cameras

I Hate Suzie

This critically acclaimed drama, written and exec produced by Lucy Prebble stars Billie Piper as Suzie Pickles, who has her life upended when she is hacked and pictures of her emerge in an extremely compromising position.

This dark comedy looks at a moment in life when the mask slips and asks if any of us can survive being well and truly 'known'.

All episodes available now

Intergalactic

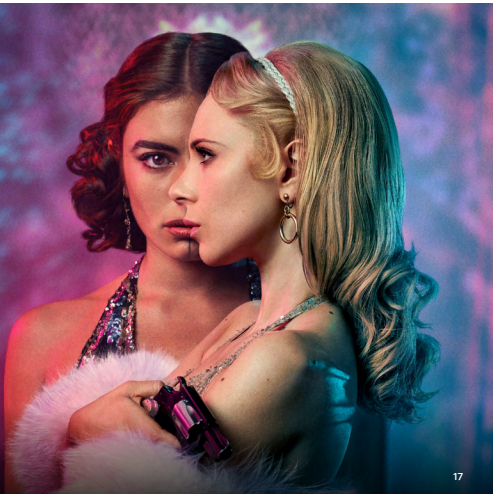

Written by award-winning showrunner, Julie Gearey (Prisoners' Wives, Cuffs, Secret Diary of a Call Girl), this Sky Original drama series tells the story of a fearless young cop and galactic pilot, Ash Harper (Savannah Steyn), who has her glittering career ripped away from her after being wrongly convicted of a treasonous crime and exiled to a distant prison colony.

Premiering this April

Little Birds

Created by Sophia Al Maria and directed by Stacie Passon. Little Birds is playfully inspired by Anaïs Nin's posthumously published 1979 collection of erotic short stories, and weaves stories of love and desire together with personal drama and political intrigue, set against a uniquely distinctive backdrop of hedonism and conflict.

All episodes available now

A Discovery of Witches (Seasons 1 & 2)

Hit series, adapted from the novels of New York Times bestselling author Deborah Harkness and exec produced by Jane Tranter and Julie Gardner.

The new series sees Matthew and Diana hiding in time in the fascinating and treacherous world of Elizabethan London. Here they must find a powerful witch to help Diana master her magic and search for the elusive Book of Life.

All episodes available now

Little Women

Brilliantly adapted and directed by Greta Gerwig, this critically acclaimed film reframes Louisa May Alcott's classic coming of age novel about four sisters in the shadow of the American Civil War.

Available now

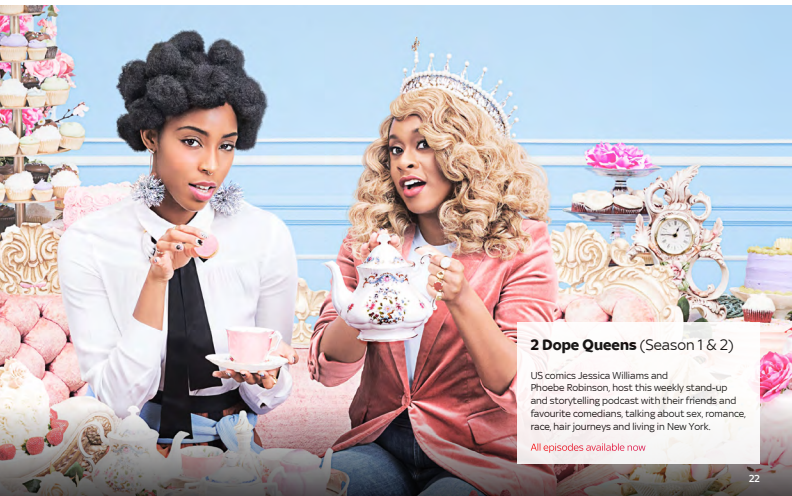

Girls (Seasons 1-6)

Created, and written by Lena Dunham, this Golden Globe-winning comedy tells the story of aspiring writer Hannah Horvath and her three friends, Marnie, Jessa and Shoshanna as they struggle to navigate the choppy waters of twentysomething life.

All episodes available now

Women in Comedy

Celebrating the women that make us laugh

2 Dope Queens (Season 1 & 2)

US comics Jessica Williams and Phoebe Robinson, host this weekly stand-up and storytelling podcast with their friends and favourite comedians, talking about sex, romance, race, hair journeys and living in New York.

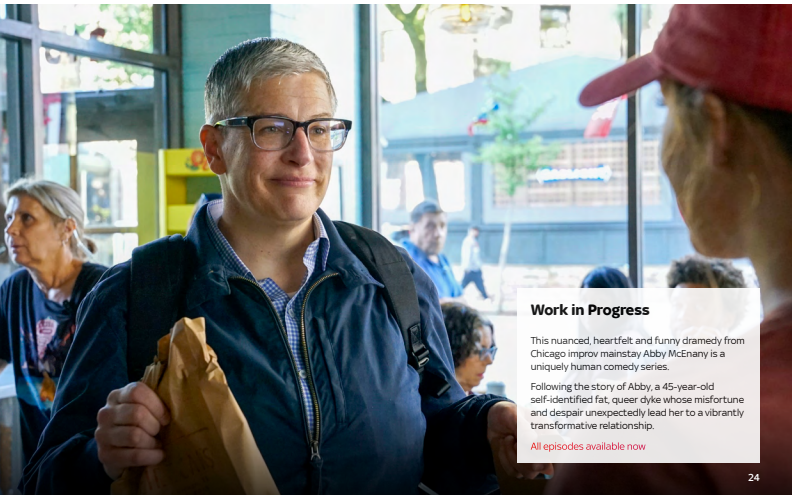

All episodes available now

Expecting Amy

A candid documentary following comedian Amy Schumer as she navigates a gruelling pregnancy afflicted by acute morning sickness, whilst also managing the pressures of creating her stand-up special in a raw and unfiltered look at her life.

Available now

Work in Progress

This nuanced, heartfelt and funny dramedy from Chicago improv mainstay Abby McEnany is a uniquely human comedy series.

Following the story of Abby, a 45-year-old self-identified fat, queer dyke whose misfortune and despair unexpectedly lead her to a vibrantly transformative relationship.

All episodes available now

A woman with shoulder-length reddish-brown hair and bangs is sitting in a brown upholstered chair. She is wearing a sleeveless top with a bold orange, yellow, and red floral pattern. She has a thoughtful or slightly sad expression, looking off to the side. Her hands are clasped in her lap. In the background, there is a tall, thin, light-colored decorative plant and a stack of papers or books on the left.

Frayed

Created, written by and starring Australian comedian Sarah Kendell, Frayed follows fabulously wealthy London housewife Sammy who is forced to return to the Australian town she grew up in. But in coming home, Sammy must revisit her past and the events that led her to flee as a teenager years ago.

All episodes available now

Parks & Recreation (Seasons 1-7)

Featuring a Golden Globe winning performance from Amy Poehler, this US sitcom set in a fictional town in Indiana follows over enthusiastic office bureaucrat Leslie Knope (Poehler) and her team at the department of parks and recreation as they seek to make their city a better place to live.

All episodes available now

Bridesmaids

Friendship rivalries are exposed in this Oscar and Golden Globe nominated original screenplay from Kristen Wiig and Annie Mumolo.

Annie, a jobless chef, is asked by best friend Lillian, to be her maid of honour, only to encounter fierce competition from another bridesmaid with disastrous and hilarious consequences.

Available now

Black Lady Sketch Show

This narrative series set in a limitless magical reality full of dynamic, hilarious characters is notable for its numerous firsts: the first all-Black women writer's room (led by Lauren Ashley Smith), the first Black woman sketch director (Dime Davis, "Boomerang"), and the first sketch series cast composed entirely of Black women.

Touching on such culturally relevant themes as social norms, anxiety, religion, sex, dating and relationships, each episode consists of five to six sketches and features guest stars such as Angela Bassett, Laverne Cox, Tia Mowry, Loretta Devine, Kelly Rowland and David Alan Grier.

All episodes returning 23 March

Hitmen

Starring the brilliant British comic duo Sue Perkins and Mel Giedroyc, Hitmen is a six-part Sky original comedy about two best friends trying to make their way in the world with only each other to rely on. They also just happen to kill people for a living.

All episodes available now

Leading Ladies

Female stars of screen and stage fronting culture shifting stories

Tina

With over 200 million record sales worldwide, 12 Grammy Awards and the holder of the Guinness World Record for selling more concert tickets than any solo performer in history, Tina Turner's road to global superstardom is an undeniable story of triumph over adversity.

This story of an icon from the Oscar-winning filmmakers behind Undefeated and Searching for Sugar Man is the ultimate story of survival.

Available late March

Big Little Lies

With an all-star cast this Golden Globe winning drama is based on the best-selling novel by Liane Moriarty.

Starring Reese Witherspoon, Nicole Kidman, and Shailene Woodley this darkly comedic series tells the tale of three mothers whose seemingly perfect lives unravel to the point of murder.

All episodes returning 1 March

The L Word: Generation Q

Set 10 years on from its groundbreaking first series, the much-anticipated sequel follows the intermingled lives of Bette, Shane and Alice as they experience love, heartbreak, sex, setbacks and success in LA.

All episodes available now

A promotional image for the TV series 'Pen15'. Two young women, Maya Erskine and Anna Konkle, are sitting on the tiled edge of a swimming pool. The woman on the left has short dark hair and is wearing a white one-piece swimsuit with a colorful floral pattern. The woman on the right has blonde hair tied back and is wearing a blue denim-style one-piece swimsuit. They are both looking off-camera with expressions of concern or awkwardness. The background is a lush green hedge with white flowers. A yellow and red patterned towel is draped over the pool edge near the woman on the right.

Pen15

Painfully funny comedy series created by and starring Maya Erskine and Anna Konkle as versions of themselves struggling through as outcasts at middle school in the year 2000.

This acclaimed comedy deals with all the awkwardness of being a teenager.

All episodes available now

Keeping up with the Kardashians (Seasons 1-18)

Reality TV royalty, Kim, Kourtney, Khloé, Kendall, Kylie and mum Kris are the world's original reality TV superstars. Keeping up with the Kardashians may be coming to an end in 2021, but this show changed the nature of celebrity forever, catapulted the sisters to global fame and launched a billion dollar empire.

All episodes available now

Sex & The City (Seasons 1-6)

With a new chapter set to begin shooting this Spring, this era defining 90s drama follows Carrie Bradshaw and her friends, Samantha, Miranda and Charlotte as they gossip about life, love and sex in New York City.

All episodes available now

sky now^{TV}