

Cost Reporting and Audit

The producer must deliver monthly cost reports to the Sky production contact. The producer is to keep true and accurate books of account relating to all expenditure made on programmes. Sky shall be entitled on reasonable notice to inspect the production company's books of accounts and records. You are required to deliver to your Sky production contact a final cost report no later than one month after the delivery of your programme following the Sky budget template.