

| PROVIDER NOTIFICATION OF RETAIL DRUGPOLICY CRITERIA CHANGE |                                                                                                                                           |                   |                      |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|----------------------|
| Drug(s) Impacted                                               | CRITERIACHANGE                                                                                                                        | EFFECTIVEDATE | Formulary            |
| Opdivo                                                  | Added coverage for use in combination with Tudriqev (vusolimogene oderparepvec-wtpg) for cutaneous melanoma, per Tudriqev package insert. | 09/27/2026        | Essential            |
| Zolymbus                                                | Added Zolymbus to target drug list. Removed Lumigan from target drug list (generic available).                                            | 10/1/26           | StandardMetallic |
| Lumigan                                                 | Removed Lumigan from target drug list (generic available).                                                                                | 10/1/26           | StandardMetallic |