Schneider a Leader Among Military Employers; Recognized by CivilianJobs.com

Schneider, one of North America's largest truckload carriers and home to more than 2,500 drivers with military experience, was named a Most Valuable Employer (MVE) by CivilianJobs.com earlier this year. CivilianJobs.com, a website that helps America's top companies find military-experienced talent, announced the winners for the Most Valuable Employers \(MVE\) for Military last month. In its sixth year, the MVE recognition allows military-experienced jobseekers and veterans to identify the top employers to target for civilian careers, with Schneider being named a finalist.

"Service members and veterans are part of the very foundation Schneider is built on, so being named a Most Valuable Employer for Military is a proud achievement," said Rob Reich, Schneider senior vice president and a veteran of the U.S. Army. "Our values of safety, integrity, respect and excellence align closely with military values, and we feel that makes for an easy transition for veterans. They are a good fit at Schneider because of the great skills they bring to the table, such as critical thinking, the ability to handle stress and being self-reliant."

The 2014 Most Valuable Employers for Military was open to all U.S.-based companies. The winners were selected based on surveys in which employers outlined their recruiting, training and retention plans that best serve military service members and veterans. In addition to being recognized in the May issue of Military Transition News, CivilianJobs.com's worldwide military base newspaper, winning employers will also be displayed on the CivilianJobs.com website at www.civilianjobs.com/MVE\_Winners\_2014.htm.
