Become a USA Judo Coach Clinician

USA Judo is building a nationwide network of clinicians to help shape the future of coach education in the United States. We are seeking experienced, passionate judoka to join. Successful clinicians will become nationally accredited and qualified to deliver official USA Judo certifications, assess coach candidates, and support the highest standards of coaching across the country. As a participant, you will:

- Earn clinician accreditation through the USA Judo Coach Education Program;
- Join the USA Judo National Clinician Network;
- Receive ongoing mentorship and professional development;
- Become eligible to deliver sanctioned coaching certifications.

Why should I apply:

- The coach certification fee is waived for 2-years;
- Only accredited coach clinicians are approved to conduct USA Judo coach certification clinics.

Applicants should:

- Be a current USA Judo member in good standing;
- Hold all required compliance certifications;
- Be a minimum of a USA Judo certified national coach;
- Hold a USA Judo rank of sandan;
