ABOUT USA FIELD HOCKEY

USA Field Hockey is the National Governing Body for the sport of field hockey in the United States and is based out of Colorado Springs, Colo.

The United States Field Hockey Association (USFHA) was founded in 1922 by Constance Applebee to govern women's field hockey in the United States. Six years later in 1928, the Field Hockey Association of America (FHAA) was founded to govern men's field hockey in the United States. In April 1993, the USFHA and FHAA merged to form the United States Field Hockey Association. Later that year, the name was changed to just USA Field Hockey.

The mission of USA Field Hockey is to:

- Grow the Game by promoting and continuing to develop the sport for future generations to enjoy.
- Serve and Inspire Membership by helping them achieve their field hockey ambition and creating value for continued membership.
- Succeed Internationally with competitive success and enhanced performance programming.
- Be an Effective Sport Leader by allocating its resources efficiently to Grow the Game, Serve Members and Succeed Internationally.

HOW USA QUALIFIED

© WORLD SPORT PICS

Argentina secured a spot in the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup with their second place finish in the 2024–25 FIH Hockey Pro League. Since USA and Argentina faced each other in the PAC final, USA took home the silver and the second qualification spot via the Continental Quota.

2025 PAN AMERICAN CUP

From July 24 to August 3, the then No.14 USWNT played in the 2025 Pan American Cup in Montevideo, Uruguay.

Their opening contest was a high-scoring shutout win over No. 29 Mexico (10–0). Next they battled No. 12 Chile to a 5–2 win to secure a spot in the semifinals. Their final pool game was forfeited by Trinidad & Tobago, resulting in a 5–0 victory. In the semifinals, USA and No. 21 Uruguay had a nerve-wracking match that was decided in a shootout. After a 1–1 draw in regulation, the shootout went four rounds with USA tallying all chances and goalkeeper Kelsey Bing making a critical stop for the 4–2 win – securing their place in the final as well as their FIH Hockey World Cup qualification. Despite their best defensive efforts in the final, USA could not withstand the No. 3 Argentina attack, falling 3–0 and heading home with a silver finish.

COACHES & STAFF

DAVID PASSMORE

Head Coach

Passmore was named the head coach of the U.S. Women's National Team in August 2022. With more than 20 years of coaching international field hockey under his belt, he has worked with men, women and junior teams as well as regional and club programs. He joined Team USA after serving the Ireland's National Team program.

He has led USA to second place finishes at the 2023 Pan American Games, 2024 FIH Hockey Olympic Qualifier and 2025 Pan American Cup. He secured qualification to both the Paris 2024 Olympic Games and 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup, after missing out on both previous editions.

WHERE TO WATCH

USA Field Hockey announced that CBS Sports Network will air the U.S. Women's National Team's matches at the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup, taking place in Wavre, Belgium.

The agreement with USA Field Hockey, CBS Sports and the International Hockey Federation (FIH) will once again bring field hockey action to one of the nation's leading sports channels.

Programming on CBS Sports Network will cover only the United Eagles' pool play games and crossovers. The No. 11 USWNT will start against Pan American rivals, No. 2 Argentina, on Saturday, August 15 at 11:30 a.m. ET. Next, USA will face No. 14 Scotland on Monday, August 17 at 5:00 a.m. ET, before meeting No. 5 Germany in their final pool game on Wednesday, August 19 at 8:00 a.m. ET.

Crossovers begin on Saturday, August 22, where teams are reallocated into either the Second Stage (Pool F) vying for the semifinals or Classification Stage (Pool H) where teams will compete for 9th to 16th place. The second crossover game will be played on Monday, August 24, before the semifinals on Thursday, August 27 and final on Saturday, August 29.

World Ranking: #2

Nickname: Las Leonas

Head Coach: Fernando Ferrara

World Cup Appearances: 15 Appearances – 1974 (2nd), 1976 (2nd), 1978 (3rd), 1981 (6th), 1983 (9th), 1986 (2nd), 1990 (9th), 1994 (2nd), 1998 (4th), 2002 (1st), 2006 (3rd), 2010 (1st), 2014 (3rd), 2018 (7th), 2022 (2nd)

How they qualified: Finished second in the 2024–25 FIH Hockey Pro League, granting them an automatic place. Argentina also won gold at the 2025 Pan American Games, but that Continental Quota was awarded to the second place finishing team, USA.

About the team: In June, Argentina claimed their second successive silver medal in the FIH Hockey Pro League, winning eight and losing just three of their 15 matches. While a ten-goal haul from penalty corner ace Agustina Gorzelany played a significant role, telling goal contributions from Brisa Bruggesser, Eugenia Trinchinetti, Julieta Jankunas, Zoe Diaz and attacker Maria Granatto were also central to that accomplishment. Goalkeeper Cristina Cosentino was a star performer, making countless regular time saves winning three of the four shoot-outs she faced.

One to watch: Agustina Gorzelany, is a feared penalty corner drag-flicker who scored 25 goals across the two most recent FIH Hockey Pro League seasons. Gorzelany also finished top scorer at the Pan American Cup 2025, netting ten goals in five matches.

How they qualified: Finished in second at the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifier in Santiago (CHI)

About the team: While an eighth-place finish in the 2025–26 FIH Hockey Pro League was below expectations, Australia showed glimpses of a promising future at the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifier in Santiago, finishing second to the host nation. 2026 international debutant Neasa Flynn finished tied as a top scorer with three goals, while Steph Kershaw, Alice Arnot, Claire Colwill and Grace Stewart all made important scoring contributions to ensure the Hockeyroos reached the World Cup for the 13th time in succession.

One to watch: Kaitlin Nobbs is a highly respected defender and key figure in Australia's leadership group. She was named the 2025 Hockeyroo of the Year, is a registered nurse, and the daughter of hockey royalty. Her mother Lee Capes (and aunt Michelle Capes) won gold at Seoul 1988 Olympic Games while her father Michael Nobbs played at Los Angeles 1984. Her uncle Mark Hager, current head coach of Australia men, won Olympic bronze at Atlanta 1996.

World Ranking: #3

Nickname: Red Panthers

Head Coach: Adam Commens

World Cup Appearances: 7 Appearances – 1974 (5th), 1976 (4th), 1978 (3rd), 1981 (8th), 2014 (12th), 2018 (10th), 2022 (6th)

How they qualified: Host Nation

About the team: Despite that slightly frustrating campaign ending, Belgium can reflect on another excellent FIH Hockey Pro League season. They finished just one point behind runners-up Argentina, with co-captain Charlotte Engelbert and Vanden Borre each scoring six goals and Delphine Marien contributing five. This Red Panthers squad is packed with experience. Alix Gerniers (300+ caps), Judith Vandermeiren (270+), Emma Puvrez (240+), Vanden Borre (220+), Lien Hillewaert (170+) and co-captain Michelle Struijk (160) bring masses of international wisdom to the table.

One to watch: Alix Gerniers was named on the three-player shortlist for women's 2025 FIH Player of the Year award. Gerniers is 33 years old and is an influential midfielder with more than 300 international appearances to her name. She is competing in her fourth World Cup, following appearances at The Hague 2014, London 2018 and Terrassa-Amstelveen 2022. Gerniers is not the only member of her family competing at the World Cup, with cousin Arthur de Sloover representing Belgium men.

CHILE

World Ranking: #13

Nickname: Las Diablas

Head Coach: Cristobal Rodriguez

World Cup Appearances: 1 Appearance – 2022 (13th)

How they qualified: Won the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifier in Santiago (CHI)

About the team: Chile were recently in action at the 2026 FIH Hockey Women's Nations Cup in Auckland (NZL) reaching the semifinals before suffering a heavy 6-0 loss to India and then being narrowly denied bronze by Pan American rivals USA, losing 3-2 thanks to a 46th minute goal. Fernanda Arrieta finished tied for third in the scoring table with four goals.

One to watch: Manuela Urroz, Chile's captain and driving force, is a 34-year-old striker and goal creator has played a starring role in virtually all her team's successes over the last ten years. At the time of writing, Urroz had made 265 appearances for Las Diablas and scored 125 goals, the vast majority of which have come from open play.

How they qualified: Won the 2025 Women's Asia Cup in Hangzhou (CHN)

About the team: Back-to-back fourth-place finishes in the 2024–25 and 2025–26 FIH Hockey Pro League campaigns are China's best-ever results in the competition, sandwiching a superb triumph at the 2025 Women's Asia Cup to secure qualification for the World Cup. Zou Meirong scored 11 goals in seven matches as the hosts claimed their first Asia Cup title in 16 years, sealing the crown with a commanding 4–1 victory over India in the final.

One to watch: Li Hong, a dynamic attacking midfielder capable of both creating and scoring goals, the 27-year-old was nominated for the 2025 FIH Player of the Year Award, while compatriot Liu Ping was shortlisted for the Best Goalkeeper prize. Hong plays her club hockey for Amsterdam H&BC – where Annan herself used to coach – in the Dutch Hoofdklasse, having joined the club in September 2025.

World Cup Appearances: 11 Appearances – 1983 (5th), 1986 (5th), 1990 (4th), 1994 (9th), 1998 (9th), 2002 (5th), 2006 (7th), 2010 (3rd), 2014 (11th), 2018 (6th), 2022 (8th)

How they qualified: Won the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifiers in Hyderabad (IND)

About the team: Having finished eighth and narrowly avoided relegation in the 2024–25 FIH Hockey Pro League, England improved marginally to seventh in the 2025–26 campaign. They arguably saved their best performances for their final two matches of the season, played in late June in London. Tess Howard, Olivia Hamilton, Lily Owsley and Darcy Bourne were all on target in a 4–2 victory over Spain before England finished their campaign on a massive high, defeating Pan American champions and 2022 World Cup silver medalists Argentina 3–2 with captain Anna Toman, Ellie Rayer and Holly Hunt all on target. Combined with their dominant displays in World Cup qualification, those performances showed that while England are still searching for greater consistency, they can compete with the very best and will be a dangerous opponent for any team in this competition.

One to watch: Sophie Hamilton was named Women's Senior Performance Player of the Year at the England Hockey Awards 2025 and the 25-year-old is a gifted midfielder who looks set to be a central figure for both England and Great Britain for many years to come.

How they qualified: Finished in second during the 2023–24 FIH Hockey Pro League

About the team: Germany had an improved showing in the 2025–26 FIH Hockey Pro League, where they finished fifth, climbing two places from the previous season. They ended the competition in outstanding form, winning seven of their final eight matches. Their 5–1 triumph over Olympic silver medalists China was particularly impressive, with all five of their goals coming in the final quarter through Lilly Stoffelsma, Jette Fleschütz, Sophia Schwabe, Sara Strauss and Sonja Zimmerman. In 2022, Germany narrowly missed out on a medal with a heartbreaking defeat to Australia in the bronze medal match. A goal from Lena Micheel put Die Danas ahead before a late double from Steff Kershaw settled the match in favour of the Hockeyroos.

One to watch: Lena Micheel is blessed with exceptional pace and close control as an attacking midfielder capable of breaking defensive lines and changing matches in an instant. At the time of writing, the 28-year-old has scored 25 goals in 145 international appearances and collected four EuroHockey Championship medals – silver in 2019, 2021 and 2025, and bronze in 2023.

Head Coach: Sjoerd Marijne

World Cup Appearances: 8 Appearances – 1974 (4th), 1978 (7th), 1983 (11th), 1998 (12th), 2006 (11th), 2010 (9th), 2018 (8th), 2022 (9th)

How they qualified: Finished second at the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifiers in Hyderabad (IND)

About the team: India's most recent achievement may be the most impressive of the three. India won all five of their matches at June's FIH Hockey Women's Nations Cup in Auckland, New Zealand, securing promotion to next season's FIH Hockey Pro League. With victories over United States (3-2), Japan (2-1), Uruguay (3-2), Chile (6-0) and hosts New Zealand (2-0), the first-place finish was hard earned and fully deserved. Deepika played a major role in that success, scoring six penalty-corner goals, while Lalremsiami, the 2019 FIH Young Player of the Year, was named Player of the Match in the final against the Black Sticks.

One to watch: Navneet Kaur is a key figure in India's talented and dynamic forward line. At the time of writing, she had scored 94 goals in 211 international appearances, while also providing countless assists since making her debut against Ireland in April 2014 at the age of 18.

IRELAND

World Ranking: #12

Nickname: Green Army

Head Coach: Gareth Grundie

World Cup Appearances: 5 Appearances – 1986 (12th), 1994 (11th), 2002 (15th), 2018 (2nd), 2022 (11th)

How they qualified: Finished third at the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifiers in Santiago (CHI)

About the team: Ireland endured a difficult debut season in the FIH Hockey Pro League, finishing bottom of the standings with two victories. However, an impressive 3–1 win over World Cup pool opponents Spain, thanks to goals from Emily Kealy, Niamh Carey and Sarah McAuley, served as a reminder that the Green Army are more than capable of upsetting the odds.

One to watch: Katie Mullan is a fearless forward who never shirks the physical battle. The 32-year-old is one of Ireland's most inspirational figures. She has scored 89 goals in 261 international appearances and is one of four players who also featured in the team's historic World Cup silver-medal-winning campaign in 2018, alongside Elena Tice and Roisin Upton.

JAPAN

World Ranking: #15

Nickname: Sakura Japan / Cherry Blossoms

Head Coach: Akira Takahashi

World Cup Appearances: 9 Appearances – 1978 (6th), 1981 (7th), 1990 (11th), 2002 (10th), 2006 (5th), 2010 (11th), 2014 (10th), 2018 (13th), 2022 (11th)

How they qualified: Finished fourth at the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifiers in Santiago (CHI)

About the team: In June, the team endured a sub-standard FIH Hockey Nations Cup campaign in Auckland (NZL), failing to reach the semifinals before eventually finishing in sixth after another shootout defeat, this time at the hands of Korea. Despite that disappointment, Japan's promising young team will be eager to test themselves against the very best in the shape of two-time winners Australia and reigning champions the Netherlands, the undisputed tournament favourites.

One to watch: Amiru Shimada. Japan's influential midfielder has been a regular in the team since April 2019, when she launched her international career in a three-match series against Pool A opponents Chile, registering her first international goal with the winner in their second meeting.

NETHERLANDS

World Ranking: #1

Nickname: Oranje

Head Coach: Raoul Ehren

World Cup Appearances: 5 Appearances – 1974 (1st), 1976 (3rd), 1987 (1st), 1981 (2nd), 1983 (1st), 1986 (1st), 1990 (1st), 1994 (6th), 1998 (2nd), 2002 (2nd), 2006 (1st), 2010 (2nd), 2014 (1st), 2018 (1st), 2022 (1st)

How they qualified: Host Nation

About the team: Central to the Netherlands' success has been the goalscoring brilliance of Yibbi Jansen, the 2024 FIH Player of the Year. Jansen, the most feared penalty corner drag-flicker on the planet, finished top scorer in the two most recent FIH Hockey Pro League editions and the EuroHockey Championship, netting an astonishing 40 goals across the three competitions.

One to watch: Midfield playmaker Xan de Waard is perhaps the one irreplaceable player for the Oranje. The 2023 and 2025 FIH Player of the Year, double Olympic gold medallist (2020, 2024) and four-time European champion (2017, 2019, 2023, 2025) is targeting her fourth World Cup crown following glorious campaigns in 2014, 2018 and 2022. Having recently announced her decision to step away from top-level hockey at the end of this competition, de Waard will be keen to go out on a high.

NEW ZEALAND

World Ranking: #10

Nickname: Black Sticks

Head Coach: Phil Burrows

World Cup Appearances: 9 Appearances – 1983 (7th), 1986 (4th), 1990 (7th), 1998 (6th), 2002 (11th), 2010 (7th), 2014 (5th), 2018 (11th), 2022 (5th)

How they qualified: Won the 2025 Oceania Cup in Darwin (AUS)

About the team: New Zealand has impressed in the last two FIH Hockey Nations Cup competitions. They claimed the 2024 title in Santiago (CHI) thanks to shootout victories over hosts Chile in the semifinals and Ireland in the final, with forward Holly Pearson named Player of the Tournament. They came close to defending their crown on home soil in Auckland, reaching the gold-medal match before suffering a 2-0 defeat against India.

One to watch: Grace O'Hanlon is only the second New Zealand player to receive an FIH Best Player Award following Stacey Michelsen's Rising Star honor in 2011. The 33-year-old goalkeeper had already established herself as one of the world's finest before being crowned 2025 FIH Goalkeeper of the Year. She was instrumental in New Zealand's FIH Hockey Nations Cup campaigns in 2025 and 2026, helping the Black Sticks secure gold and silver medals respectively.

World Ranking: #14

Head Coach: Chris Duncan

World Cup Appearances: 4 Appearances – 1983 (8th), 1986 (10th), 1998 (10th), 2002 (12th)

How they qualified: Finished third at the 2026 FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifiers in Hyderabad (IND)

About the team: Returning to the FIH Hockey World Cup for the first time in 24 years, Scotland will be determined to show they belong on the sport's biggest stage. Their place at the tournament was secured with an outstanding unbeaten run through the pool phase of the FIH Hockey World Cup Qualifier in Hyderabad (IND). Victories over Wales (1-0) and Uruguay (3-1) either side of a thrilling 2-2 draw with hosts India saw Scotland progress to the semifinals. Although they were beaten 2-0 by neighbors and fierce rivals England in the last four, Scotland responded brilliantly in the third-place playoff. Amy Costello's decisive goal secured a 1-0 victory over Italy, booking Scotland's first World Cup appearance since the 2002 tournament in Perth (AUS).

One to watch: Sarah Robertson is Scotland's captain and brings a wealth of experience to a talented young squad. The Tokyo 2020 Olympic bronze medalist has enjoyed an international career spanning more than 14 years and is a caps centurion for both Scotland and Great Britain, making a combined 233 outdoor international appearances since debuting in September 2012.

SOUTH AFRICA

World Ranking: #18

Head Coach: Inky Zondi

World Cup Appearances: 7 Appearances – 1998 (7th), 2002 (13th), 2006 (12th), 2010 (10th), 2014 (9th), 2018 (15th), 2022 (15th)

How they qualified: Won the 2025 Africa Cup of Nations in Ismailia (EGY)

About the team: South Africa claimed an eighth Africa Cup of Nations title in 2025 with a commanding display in Ismailia (EGY), securing an eighth successive World Cup appearance. South Africa opened the tournament with a crushing 10–0 victory over the hosts before being pushed hard by Ghana, eventually prevailing 3–2 thanks in part to a brace from Ongeziwe Mali. Following a 0–0 draw with Nigeria, they found top form in the knockout phase, defeating Nigeria 5–0 in the semifinals before sealing the title with a convincing 4–0 win over Ghana in the final. Hannah Pearce and Jean-Leigh du Toit finished with four goals each, while Mali and Kayla de Waal both scored three. Experienced midfielder Quanita Bobbs, who does not feature at the World Cup, was named the competition's best player.

One to watch: Hannah Pearce, who produced four goals in the 2025 African Cup of Nations title, played a crucial role in helping them seal their World Cup ticket. The 27-year-old attacker has represented her country 67 times, scoring ten goals

Nickname: Red Sticks

Head Coach: Carlos Garcia Cuenca

World Cup Appearances: 12 Appearances – 1974 (6th), 1976 (5th), 1978 (8th), 1981 (10th), 1986, (11th), 1990 (5th), 1994 (8th), 2002 (8th), 2006 (4th), 2010 (12th), 2018 (3rd), 2022 (7th)

How they qualified: Finished third at the 2025 EuroHockey Championship in Mönchengladbach (GER)

About the team: Spain finished sixth in the 2025-26 FIH Hockey Pro League but produced several eye-catching performances. Early home victories over Belgium (1-0) and Germany (3-1) were followed by an impressive 4-1 away success against Australia in Tasmania, with Lucia Jimenez, Sofia Rogoski, Laura Bosch and Marta Segu all finding the net. Arguably their finest performances came in London in June, where they defeated Argentina (2-1) and hosts England (1-0) on successive days to underline their ability to compete with the world's best. Molina and Florencia Amundson scored against Las Leonas, with Amundson also netting the winner against England. Patricia Alvarez finished as Spain's leading scorer in the competition with five goals, while Amundson added four.

One to watch: With more than 230 international appearances, co-captain Xantal Gine is the most experienced player in the squad as well as a superb defender and inspirational leader for the Red Sticks.

World Ranking: #11

Nickname: United Eagles

Head Coach: David Passmore

World Cup Appearances: 9 Appearances – 1983 (6th), 1986 (9th), 1990 (12th), 1994 (3rd), 1998 (8th), 2002 (9th), 2006 (6th), 2014 (4th), 2018 (14th)

How they qualified: Finished second, behind Argentina, at the 2025 Pan American Games. Argentina already secured qualification with their second place finish in the 2024–25 FIH Hockey Pro League so USA secured the spot through the Continental Quota.

About the team: USA arrive at the World Cup coming off a bronze-medal finish at the 2026 FIH Hockey Nations Cup in Auckland (NZL). Ashley Sessa was one of the standout performers, finishing tied at the top of the scoring charts with six goals, including two in her side's 3–2 victory over Chile in the bronze-medal match.

One to watch: Ashley Hoffman, one of USA's most experienced athletes, is a 29-year-old defender who has represented her country with distinction for almost a decade. She was a member of the roster that competed at the Paris 2024 Olympic Games and 2018 FIH Hockey World Cup in London (ENG). She is the daughter of Brenda (née Stauffer) Hoffman, who won Olympic bronze at Los Angeles 1984 Olympic Games.
