

As your Athlete Director, I have always prioritized transparency and accountability in every decision made on behalf of our athletes. I have remained steadfast in my commitment to serving you without any financial gain, continuing to make $0 from this position. I promise to relentlessly advocate for a positive direction for USA Judo, one that places the interests and well-being of our athletes at the forefront. With your support, I will continue to do whatever it takes to ensure that USA Judo is a force for good, driven by integrity and the voices of its athletes. Together, we will build a stronger, more united future.
