Job Summary:

USA Artistic Swimming (USAAS) is hiring a Youth National Team Head Coach to aid in our continued efforts to develop a competitive and enjoyable team environment that will work to continue to put USAAS on the international lead. The position is a temporary contractor position that will lead the Youth National Team on the Youth - Olympic Development Camp. The position will be a two-week commitment that will start mid-July. The position will be responsible for the growth of the country's highest level youth athletes in all areas of sport. While their physical development and skill enhancement are a vital part of this program the position will be responsible for making each of them a better teammate and well-rounded athlete.

This position will work with the USAAS Chief of Sport in the development of the coaching plan and team strategy. The position will ultimately implement the plan and use their skill set to make the most positive impact on these athletes. This person will set a two-week schedule and adjust according to the needs of the training camp. The Head Coach will represent the United States in an international event setting.

The Head Coach and Assistant coach will be expected to work closely with the USAAS national office for budgeting, lodging, travel, team apparel and any additional items that may be necessary.

The training location for the training camp has not yet been selected, and the Head Coach will have the opportunity to work with the high-performance team in securing a location.

The head coach may be required to live near the team to provide transportation and meal prep assistance. This is dependent on the level of volunteerism provided

Travel, meals and lodging will be covered by USAAS and contract compensation will be based on experience.

The Youth Head Coach will be required to collaborate with the Chief of Sport to prepare the curriculum and coach at the USAAS rising starts camp.

Reports to the Chief of Sport, High-Performance Staff.

The Head Coach responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Collaborate with the Chief of Sport to prepare the training strategy for the season.
- Participate in all Youth National Team selection trials.
- Assist in development and communication of the training camp plan/calendar.
- Manage all assistant coaches and consultants (define their roles and responsibilities and what is expected of them, provide them with feedback and evaluate them at the end of the season).
- Communicate with the youth national team athletes, club coaches and parents.
- Keep track of the athletes' progress and meet with them at least twice individually (once at the beginning of the season and once at the end).
- If applicable, collaborate with support staff (physician, physiotherapist, nutritionist, sport psychologist and any other support staff).
- If applicable, develop music and choreography for youth national team routines.
- If applicable, assist with competition report after each competition.
- Collaborate with the Chief of Sport and Youth National Team Manager (if applicable) for all training and competition logistics.
- If applicable, participate in and coordinate media appearances and/or any promotional activities with the Chief of Sport or the Media Officer.
- Participate in Education seminars and conferences as directed by the national office.
- Monitor athlete compliance and wellness throughout the training camp.
- Collaborate with the Chief of Sport to build curriculum and coach at the USAAS rising starts camp. Participate in at least two of the grassroot development camp. Additional compensation will be provided for camp support.
- Perform other tasks as directed by the Chief of Sport.
