2026 U.S. Taekwondo Final Championships Qualification

Athletes will qualify based on points as of the end of July 2026. The top 20 ranked athletes in each World-Class Division will receive an invitation to the 2026 Season Final.

Belt Qualification Rule: All athletes will be eligible to compete at the 2026 U.S. Taekwondo Season Final at the current belt in which they hold. Aspiring athletes can change their belt color or division through the final registration deadline, except for athletes who by changing their belt would require them to compete in the World Class division. To compete as a World Class athlete, the athlete must be in the top 20 ranked of the division. Any athletes found to be registered for a division they are not qualified for will be removed, and no refund will be issued. After the final registration deadline, athletes must compete in the division or belt color they have registered for.

World Class Black Belts: All world class black belt athletes in the Cadet, Junior, and Senior age divisions must compete in the weight class they qualified in or one weight class higher for the 2026 U.S. Taekwondo Season Final. Any athlete who is found to have registered in a weight class they do not qualify for will be re-registered into the division they qualify for and receive an email acknowledging the change.

For example, if an athlete qualifies in the “-58kg” weight class they must compete in that weight class or the “-63kg” weight class. The athlete may not move down to the “-54kg” weight class.

Age Qualification: USATKD uses the date December 31 of the given year to determine the competition age for all athletes. EX. A 14-year-old athlete turns 15 years old on September 27th, meaning they would compete as a 15-year-old athlete for all events during the calendar year.

Spectator Code of Conduct

At all USA Taekwondo sanctioned events, every spectator plays a vital role in creating a safe, respectful and empowering environment for athletes. By attending, you agree to uphold the values of Taekwondo: Courtesy, Integrity, Self-Control, Perseverance, and Indomitable Spirit.

USA Taekwondo is committed to three core principles: Respect, Safety, and Fair Play. These are the foundations of every USATKD sanctioned competition and the standard we expect from all participants and spectators.

RESPECT: USA Taekwondo encourages a passionate, highly competitive environment where spectators cheer loudly, and athletes push their limits. But that passion must always be expressed respectfully. While most of our community consistently upholds this standard, we must all remain mindful that respect is non-negotiable. We are not looking to restrict the audience's right to express displeasure but will insist that it does not cross the line into becoming abusive towards any individual. When we cheer with respect, we elevate both the athletes and the sport.

SAFETY: Our commitment to athlete well-being extends far beyond the mat. Safety is our top priority.

USA Taekwondo has a Zero Tolerance Policy for abuse of any kind. Any action that threatens the emotional or physical safety of participants has no place in our sport. USA Taekwondo adheres to the U.S. Center for SafeSport Code, which prohibits:

- Emotional Misconduct
- Physical Misconduct
- Bullying

- Hazing
- Harassment

The U.S. Center for SafeSport and USA Taekwondo provide education, training and resources for athletes, coaches and parents.

We encourage all members to take an active role in maintaining safe environments, both in person and online, so that every competitor, especially our youngest athletes, can focus on developing their skills in a supportive atmosphere. Together, we can ensure Taekwondo remains a place where every athlete feels protected, supported and inspired to grow.

FAIR PLAY: Taekwondo is more than competition – it is a discipline rooted in fairness, respect and integrity. Referees and event staff dedicate themselves to applying rules fairly and consistently, ensuring every athlete competes on equal ground.

It is every participant's responsibility to be familiar with and follow the rules so that competition proceeds smoothly and respectfully for all involved.

To support this, USA Taekwondo offers the following resources: USA Taekwondo Sparring Rules USA Taekwondo Poomsae Rules U.S. Center for SafeSport Website U.S. Center for SafeSport Code Report a Concern to the U.S. Center for SafeSport USA Taekwondo Social Media Comment Policy
