

Ombuds' Policy

USA Boxing supports the United States Olympic Paralympic Committee's (USOPC) Office of the Athlete Ombuds and its staff (the Athlete Ombuds) as a resource available to Team USA Athletes in the Olympic and Paralympic Movement.

USA Boxing publishes the Athlete Ombuds' contact information on documents such as the Athlete Selection Procedures, Olympic Trials information, Conflict of Interest Policy, and Code of Conduct.

Team USA athletes (Elite, Youth and Junior boxers) may contact the Athlete Ombuds for independent and confidential advice on a variety of sport related matters, including their rights, applicable rules, policies or processes, and questions related to resolving disputes and grievances. The Athlete Ombuds can also help Team USA athletes connect with legal counsel or mental health resources if needed.

All other boxers (for example PeeWee, Bantam, Intermediate and Masters boxers) who don't compete internationally) are welcome to visit the Athlete Ombuds website to review informational resources and should work directly with USA Boxing to understand additional resources and options available to them.
