The U23 World Team brings quality experience to the table in the first World Championships in the United States since 2015. Of the 30-person roster slated to compete in Las Vegas, 25 individuals have represented Team USA at past World Championships. Headlining the U.S. roster are returning U23 World champions Kylie Welker and Luke Lilledahl.

The U.S. team includes seven members with short turnarounds who will compete at both the Galaxy U23 World Championships and the Senior World Championships. Morgan Turner, Cristelle Rodriguez-Dobler, Everest Leydecker and Adaugo Nwachukwu in women's freestyle, along with Otto Black and Joel Adams in Greco-Roman and Bo Bassett in men's freestyle, will double up at the two World Championships this month. Of the seven, Rodriguez-Dobler and Nwachukwu have competed at Senior Worlds before. 2025 Senior World Team member Max Black is also set to compete at the U23 World Championships for the fourth straight year.

Many different areas of history are on the line this weekend in the entertainment capital of the world. Welker looks to be the first American to win three U23 World titles; Otto Black has a chance to become the first two-time Greco-Roman U23 World medalist for the U.S. after he comes into the event following bronze in 2025. Lilledahl can also become the first U.S. men's freestyle wrestler to win two U23 World titles.

Wrestlers To Watch

Otto Black is back at the U23 World Championship for the second straight year after winning bronze at last year's edition in Novi Sad, Serbia. Black made his first Senior World Team in April and will head to Astana, Kazakhstan, in two weeks. Coming into this year's World Championships season, Black has won World medals in each of the last two years. He claimed silver at the 2024 U20 Worlds and bronze at last year's U23 Worlds. Black made his World debut in 2021 with a fifth-place finish at the U17 World Championships. This year, Black posted a strong performance at the Senior Pan American Championships, where he grabbed silver, going toe-to-toe 2021 Olympic champion and 2024 Olympic bronze medalist Luis Orta Sanchez of Cuba.

Kylie Welker looks to bounce back from a Final X defeat after dropping her best-of-three series two weeks ago in her bid to make a fourth Senior World Team. Welker, a two-time Senior World bronze medalist, aims to continue her strong run at the U23 World Championships, where she has medaled in all three previous appearances. She has back-to-back U23 World titles (2024, 2025) and won bronze in 2021, the year she competed at the U20, U23, and Senior Worlds. Welker had a strong start to the 2026 season, winning gold at the Senior Pan American Championships in her own backyard of Coralville, Iowa. En route to the continental gold medal, Welker capped her run with back-to-back pins of 2024 Olympic bronze medalists Milaimy Marin Ptrille of Cuba and Genesis Reasco Valdez of Ecuador, the reigning Senior World champion.

Luke Lilledahl looks to defend his U23 World title from last year after going 4-0 in Novi Sad, Serbia, where he outscored his opponents 32-6. After last year's title, he now holds a World title at each of the three age groups. Lilledahl won the U17 championship in 2022, followed by the U20 title in 2024. Along with his three age-group World titles, Lilledahl finished as the U20 runner-up in 2023 and U17 runner-up in 2021. In his first international tournament of the year, he captured gold at the Wacław Ziółkowski Memorial to wrap up August. On the domestic circuit, Lilledahl made his mark this year with an NCAA title for Penn State as a sophomore. He then upended Spencer Lee at the U.S. Open, 4-3, before finishing as the runner-up to Lee at Final X.

Top Storylines

United States Takes Center Stage

The United States is set to be the center of the wrestling world for the next three years, starting with the 2026 Galaxy U23 World Championships. Following the U23 World Championships, the 2027 Senior World Championships will take place at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas, Nevada, September 11-19. Then in 2028, the Olympic Games head to Los Angeles, California, where wrestling will take place at the LA Convention Center during the second week of the Games, July 24-30. This year's U23 World Championships will be the first time the U.S. has hosted a wrestling World Championship event since the 2015 Senior World Championships at Orleans Arena in Las Vegas. Earlier this year, the U.S. welcomed its Pan American counterparts for the 2026 Senior Pan American Championships in Coralville, Iowa. Coralville is also one of four candidates for United World Wrestling's second Ranking Series event, alongside Alexandria, Egypt; Astana, Kazakhstan, and Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia, at the end of May and the beginning of June.

Going for Lucky No. 3

Kylie Welker is in the hunt for her third U23 World title, in a row after winning at 76 kg in 2025 and the 72 kg title in 2024. Welker's third U23 World title would join Haruna Murayama Okuno of Japan (2017, 2022, 2023) and Nesrin Bas of Türkiye (2022, 2023, 2025) as the only women to win three U23 World titles. Welker would be the first woman to win three consecutive U23 World titles and second overall after Alexandrin Gutu of Moldova won three Greco-Roman titles from 2023-25. Gutu is the only Greco-Roman wrestler to win three U23 World titles. No men's freestyle wrestler has done so.

Twice as Nice

Luke Lilledahl looks to continue his history-making run in a USA singlet in Las Vegas this week. With his U23 title last year, he became the first American to claim U17, U20 and U23 World titles in men's freestyle. Lilledahl can become the first U.S. men's freestyle wrestler to win two U23 World titles. Of the 11 men's freestyle U23 World champions in U.S. history, none have won multiple titles. Ten men's freestyle wrestlers worldwide have accomplished the feat. Iran has produced five two-time men's freestyle champions, followed by Russia with three. Armenia and Cuba each have one two-time U23 champion heading into 2026.

Another U.S. First to Watch

Across the first eight U23 World Championships, the U.S. Greco-Roman program has produced three different medalists. Beka Melelashvili earned silver in 2024, while Payton Jacobson and Otto Black both won bronze in 2025. Black could become the first American Greco-Roman wrestler to collect multiple U23 World medals. He has advanced to the medal rounds in all four of his age-group World Championship appearances and claimed three total medals.

Looking to Break Through on the U23 Stage

The U.S. Greco-Roman team has two more age-group World medalists on its U23 roster in Joel Adams and Aden Attao. The pair are also looking to break through on the U23 World stage with medals on home soil. Adams, who is on the 2026 Senior World Team, has made four age-group World Teams. He debuted on the World stage with a gold medal at the 2022 U17 World Championships. At the U20 level, Adams has continued to improve each year. He placed 21st in 2023, followed by 15th place in 2024. Last year, Adams placed 10th to score points for Team USA. Adams' growth has continued as he won gold at the Senior Pan American Championships in May after winning the Senior World Team Trials in April. Attao has now made five straight age-group World Teams. Attao competed at the U20 World Championships in 2022, 2023 and 2024, bookending his appearances with bronze medals. Attao joined Black on the U23 World Team last year in Novi Sad, Serbia, and placed 11th.

Quick Turnaround

With the U23 World Championships taking place on home soil, Team USA is showing that much of its 'up-and-coming' talent has already arrived. Seven wrestlers competing for the U.S. at the U23 World Championships will have a quick turnaround and a long trip to the Senior World Championships in Astana, Kazakhstan. The women's freestyle team has half its team competing at both World Championships. Morgan Turner (50 kg), Cristelle Rodriguez-Dobler (53 kg), Everest Leydecker (55 kg) and Adaugo Nwachukwu (62 kg) will all have quick transitions between the two championships, with women's freestyle wrapping up on Friday, October 16, in Las Vegas, before starting on Tuesday, October 27, in Astana. Otto Black (67 kg) and Joel Adams (77 kg) are set to compete at the two World events. Black will compete on October 12 and 13 in Las Vegas, then compete again on October 26 and 27 in Astana. Adams takes part in the U23 Worlds on October 13 and 14, then battles the field at Senior Worlds on October 24 and 25. Bo Bassett is the lone men's freestyle athlete competing in Las Vegas and Astana. He competes at 65 kg in Las Vegas on October 17 and 18, then heads to Astana to compete on October 29 and 30.

Back for More

Team USA's delegation continues to showcase its youthful talent in its own backyard, with three champions from this year's U20 World Championships looking for more hardware at age-group Worlds. Everest Leydecker, Bo Bassett and Aeoden Sinclair are back representing the U.S. for the second time this year after winning U20 World titles in Bratislava, Slovakia, this August. Leydecker repeated as U20 World champion, while Bassett won his second age-group World title after also winning the 2021 U17 World title. Sinclair's title was his first age-group World title and World medal. He first represented the U.S. at the 2023 U17 Worlds, where he placed eighth. Along with a trio of U20 World champions in the U.S. lineup in Las Vegas, U20 World silver medalist Jayden James and U20 World bronze medalist Morgan Turner will compete for Team USA at the U23 World Championships. Turner and James both competed at the U20s for the first time in their careers after winning U17 World titles in 2025. Turner's was her second U17 World title and James' was his first.

Welcome to the World Stage

A quintet of Americans will debut on the World stage in Las Vegas next week. Brett Back (Greco-Roman, 72 kg), Sara Sterner (women's freestyle, 57 kg), Taylor Graveman (women's freestyle, 72 kg), Jordan Williams (men's freestyle, 70 kg) and Seth Shumate (men's freestyle, 92 kg) are all on their first World Team for the U.S. Shumate, who is ranked third at 92 kg on this year's U.S. Senior National Team, is the only one of the five, who will don a U.S. singlet for the first time in Las Vegas and will make his international debut. Back, Sterner, Graveman and Williams have all competed for Team USA at continental championships. Graveman and Williams won U23 Pan American titles earlier this year, and Sterner claimed silver at the event. Back took part in the 2024 U20 Pan American Championships and took home gold for Team USA.

College Stars Take Center Stage in Vegas

College stars are scattered across the Team USA roster at the U23 World Championships. Kylie Welker won her third consecutive collegiate title this spring at the first-ever NCAA Women's Wrestling Championships. Her former Iowa teammate, Isabella Mir, took home her first national title with North Central College. After placing third at the 2025 NCAA Men's Wrestling Championships, Luke Lilledahl broke through for Penn State in 2026 with his first national title. After winning three NAIA National titles, Adaugo Nwachukwu returns to collegiate wrestling this fall and joins the 2026 NCAA team champions, McKendree. Cristelle Rodriguez-Dobler capped off her collegiate career this spring with her third NAIA National title for Doane University and finished as a four-time All-American. During the first NCAA Women's National Championships, Alexis Janiak and Reese Larramendy both finished as runners-up after winning NCWWC titles. As freshmen, Benjamin Davino and Aeoden Sinclair began their collegiate careers with All-American finishes. Davino finished as the national runner-up at 133 pounds, and Sinclair placed third at 184 pounds. The next set of NCAA superstars are also featured on the U23 World Team for the U.S. Everest Leydecker is set to begin her freshman season at Iowa, which finished second at the NCAA Championships this past season. Bo Bassett joins ACC power Virginia Tech, which is looking to make an impact on the national stage this year with a deep lineup. Jayden James will grayshirt this this year in his first season at Penn State, which has won 13 of the last 15 contested NCAA Championships. Coby Merrill begins his collegiate career this year with eight-time NCAA champions Iowa State.

UP for the Challenge

Northern Michigan University, based in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, has produced many strong American Greco-Roman wrestlers throughout its history and became a National Training Center for Greco-Roman wrestling in 1985. At this year's U23 World Championships, five of the 10 individuals on the U.S. Greco-Roman roster have competed at Northern Michigan University. This year's Northern Michigan contingent includes Kenneth Crosby (55 kg), Max Black (60 kg), Landon Drury (63 kg), Otto Black (67 kg) and Michael Altomer (87 kg). Andy Bisek has led the Wildcat Greco-Roman program and will be one of the U.S. personal coaches in Las Vegas.

Triple Duty

A trio of Americans will compete at three World Championships this season. Bo Bassett, Everest Leydecker and Morgan Turner are each slated to compete at the U20, U23 and Senior World Championships this season. Each has already medaled at the U20 World Championships in Bratislava, Slovakia. Bassett and Leydecker claimed their second age-group World titles in Slovakia, while Turner claimed bronze at U20 Worlds.

Looking to Double Down

The U.S. men's freestyle team is looking to win its second-straight team title at the U23 World Championships. In 2025, Team USA edged out Iran in the team race, 137-127. The U.S. used four gold medals and a bronze to spearhead the performance. Iran had just two gold medals and six overall medals. 2026 will offer a new but familiar challenge for both Iran and the U.S., with Russia back eligible to score team points. Team USA (2025 and 2023) and Iran (2024) have won the last three men's freestyle team titles. The last time Russia was counted in the team scoring was 2021, when it won the title with 145 points, beating out Iran with 140 points. Georgia also won a U23 World team title within the last five years, in 2022.

Reclaiming the Podium

Team USA's women's freestyle team is hunting for its second U23 team title in the last three years. The U.S. last won the team title in 2024, racking up 136 points to beat Japan (129 points). Team USA had three gold medalists, along with a silver and a bronze medal. Last year, the U.S. placed third behind India (121 points) and Japan (117 points). The U.S. has finished in the top three of the team standings each of the last four years. Across the last four U23 World Championships, Japan has won two team titles (2022 and 2023) while the U.S. (2024) and India (2025) have one title apiece.

Greco-Roman Rising

Greco-Roman has continued to ascend in the U.S. and at the U23 World level; Team USA has finished inside the top 10 each of the last two years after finishing outside the top 10 over the first six U23 World Championships. Last year, the U.S. scored 40 points for the second straight year and recorded its best finish at the U23 level, placing ninth. Team USA has improved its spot in the team standings each of the last seven U23 World Championships. Iran has won the last two team titles in Greco-Roman and three of the last four after not competing in 2023, when Türkiye claimed the title.

International Foes To Watch

The field includes 46 returning U23 World medalists, including 11 returning U23 World champions. Among the nine champions are Luke Lilledahl and Kylie Welker. Joining the U.S. freestyle duo looking to win U23 World titles again in 2026 are Elmir Aliyev of Azerbaijan, Mohamed Abdelrehim of Egypt, Irfan Mirzoiev of Ukraine and Yehor Yakushenko of Ukraine in Greco-Roman; Haruna Morikawa of Japan and Shugyla Omirbek of Kazakhstan in women's freestyle; Arsen Balaian of Russia and Iran's Mobin Azimi and Abolfazl Mohammad Nezhad in men's freestyle. Several athletes in the field also have Senior World Championships experience, along with two Olympians. Greco-Roman wrestler Abubakar Khaslakhana of Belarus and women's freestyle athlete Aurora Russo of Italy competed at the 2024 Olympic Games. Four wrestlers have medaled on the Senior World stage, led by Welker (two-time bronze medalist). In Greco-Roman, 2024 Senior World bronze medalist Denis Mihal of Romania and 2025 Senior World bronze medalists Vitalie Eriomenko of Moldova and Abdullo Aliev of Uzbekistan are in the field.

GRECO-ROMAN

HERB HOUSE

National Greco-Roman Head Coach

Herb House was named USA Wrestling's National Greco-Roman Head Coach in January 2024 after serving as an Assistant National Greco-Roman Coach since December 2022. He brings experience as an international competitor, Olympic and World Team coach, athlete mentor and volunteer leader within USA Wrestling.

House's Olympic coaching experience includes three Olympic Games: Rio de Janeiro in 2016, Tokyo in 2021 and Paris in 2024. He served on the volunteer coaching staff in Rio, was the assigned Greco-Roman coach in Tokyo, and led the U.S. Greco-Roman program as National Head Coach in Paris.

House coached at the World Championships in 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2021, 2022, and 2023. His assignments included helping lead the 2018 U.S. U20 Greco-Roman World Team, as part of his work developing athletes across multiple age levels.

He has also coached U.S. teams at numerous other international competitions, including the 2014 Vantaa Cup in Finland, the 2016 World Club Cup in Hungary, and the 2016 Pan American Olympic Qualifier in Texas. In 2019, he was selected to coach the U.S. Greco-Roman team at the Pan American Games in Lima, Peru.

His coaching experience extends to high school wrestling. As an assistant coach at Coronado High School in Colorado Springs, House helped the program win its first team state championship in 2011.

Beyond coaching, House has served in several leadership roles within USA Wrestling. He served as First Vice President for much of 2022, served on the Board of Directors, and chaired the Greco-Roman Sport Committee. His responsibilities included helping develop procedures and select coaches across multiple age levels.

During his tenure as head coach, the U.S. Greco-Roman program has reached important milestones at the U23 World Championships. In 2024, Beka Melelashvili earned a silver medal, becoming the first American Greco-Roman medalist in the event's history. In 2025, Payton Jacobson and Otto Black won bronze medals, marking the program's first multiple-medal performance at the U23 World Championships.

USA Wrestling named House its 2017 Greco-Roman Coach of the Year. In 2022, he was inducted into the Illinois Wrestling Coaches and Officials Association Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a wrestler and coach.

Before entering coaching, House had a successful competitive career. He won a U20 World bronze medal in 1992 and a Senior Pan American Championships bronze medal in 1993. Competing for the U.S. Army World Class Athlete Program (Army WCAP), he placed fourth at the 1997 CISM Military World Championships. His domestic accomplishments include a U.S. Open championship, four University National titles, two Armed Forces titles, and six top-five finishes at the U.S. Open.

Throughout his coaching career, House has emphasized accountability, trust, mental preparation, and character development. He focuses on preparing athletes to compete at the highest level while helping them become disciplined, confident individuals on and off the mat.

ISMAEL BORRERO MOLINA

National Greco-Roman Resident Coach

Ismael Borrero Molina joined USA Wrestling in January 2024 as Greco-Roman Resident Coach. Borrero Molina came to USA Wrestling by way of Cuba, where he won gold at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Borrero Molina is a two-time Olympian (2016 and 2020) and is also a two-time World champion (2015 and 2019). He started his Senior level career in 2012 with a gold medal at the Pan American Championships. Borrero Molina continued his success in 2013 with two international gold medals and his first World Championships appearance.

In 2014, Borrero Molina returned to the World Championships, where he made his first appearance in the medal rounds and placed fifth overall. He followed that appearance up with his first World title in 2015 and an Olympic gold medal in 2016.

Over his career, Borrero Molina made five World Championship appearances to go along with his two Olympic berths. Borrero Molina also racked up six Pan American Championship gold medals and a pair of titles at Pan American Games.

Since joining the U.S. Greco-Roman staff in 2024, Borrero Molina has helped Team USA collect 14 age-group World medals.

JOE WARREN

National Greco-Roman Assistant Coach

Joe Warren joined the USA Wrestling staff in November 2025. Warren's support role has focused on program growth and athlete development.

Warren has spent time at the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Training Center teaching and mentoring Greco-Roman athletes and has supported the full-time national coaching staff in Colorado Springs and on the road at many domestic and international events and camps.

In his wrestling career, Warren won the 2006 World title in Guangzhou, China. He became the fourth American to win a Greco-Roman World title. He was a two-time Senior World Team member and represented the U.S. at Worlds in 2005 and 2006.

Collegiately, Warren was an NCAA Division I All-American for the University of Michigan. For his post-wrestling career, Warren transitioned to MMA, where he became a two-division champion at Bellator MMA.

WOMEN'S FREESTYLE

TERRY STEINER

National Women's Freestyle Head Coach

In 2002, shortly after the International Olympic Committee announced that women's wrestling would be in the 2004 Athens Olympics, USA Wrestling hired Terry Steiner as its first National Women's Coach. Since then, Steiner has built Team USA into an elite power in international women's wrestling and helped create opportunity that has led women's wrestling to become the fastest growing female sport in the nation.

Steiner has coached at six Olympic Games, where he has coached 13 Olympic medalists including Olympic champions Sarah Hildebrandt (2024), Amit Elor (2024), Tamyra Mensah-Stock (2020) and Helen Maroulis (2016). He also coached three silver medalists and six bronze medalists.

At the World Championships, Steiner has consistently developed champions and medalists, and regularly scored podium finishes in the team standings. In the 22 Senior World Teams led by Steiner, the U.S. has won an astonishing 74 medals, with 22 golds, 17 silvers and 35 bronzes. The 22 golds were won by 10 women, with Adeline Gray winning six titles, Helen Maroulis winning four, and Tamyra Mensah-Stock and Amit Elor claiming two. Three U.S. Women's World teams have won seven medals (2003, 2022, 2023) and two teams had three champions (2019, 2022).

Under his leadership, the USA has also become a leader at the age-group levels in women's wrestling, developing numerous individual World champions and medalists, as well as teams which have reached the podium.

Previously, Steiner had worked as a Div. I assistant coach at Wisconsin and Oregon State. He was a talented Senior-level men's freestyle wrestler, a 1996 Pan American champion, who placed at the U.S. Open a number of times.

In college, Steiner was a 1993 NCAA champion for Iowa and helped lead the Hawkeyes to three NCAA team titles (1991, 1992 and 1993). A three-time All-American, he also placed third and fifth, wrestling for the legendary Hall of Fame coach Dan Gable. He was a two-time state champion at Bismarck Century High School in North Dakota. His twin brother Troy was also an NCAA champion at Iowa, a multiple state champion, and has been a successful coach at the college and international levels.

TONYA VERBEEK

National Women's Freestyle Assistant and Resident Coach

Tonya Verbeek joined the USA Wrestling Staff in May 2026 as National Women's Freestyle Assistant and Resident Coach.

Verbeek, originally from Grimsby, Ontario, Canada, is among the most credentialed athletes and coaches in women's wrestling. She joined USA Wrestling after a four-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa.

Verbeek served as an assistant coach at Iowa under head coach Clarissa Chun from 2022 to 2026 and was instrumental in Iowa's start as an NCAA varsity program. She helped coach nine individual Hawkeyes to a combined 12 national titles, plus two NCWWC team national championships and a runner-up finish at this year's inaugural NCAA Women's Wrestling Championships.

Prior to Iowa, Verbeek spent nearly a decade coaching the Canadian National Team with Wrestling Canada Lutte, where she coached women and men pursuing Olympic and World aspirations. She also spent several years coaching with the Brock Wrestling Club, where her own journey in the sport began. It was there that her coaching development was encouraged and supported, helping open the door to her coaching career.

Verbeek is a three-time Olympic medalist at 55 kg for Canada, securing silver in 2004, bronze in 2008 and silver in 2012. Additionally, she was the first Olympic medalist in women's wrestling for Canada.

From 1995 to 2011, Verbeek represented Canada at seven Senior World Championships, collecting bronze medals in 2005 and 2009, plus a silver medal in 2011. She was a two-time medalist at the World University Championships (2002, 2005) and a two-time Senior Pan American champion (2003, 2008).

Verbeek was named Ontario Athlete of the Year in 2005 and was enshrined in the St. Catharines Sports Hall of Fame in 2019. She was inducted into the United World Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2024.

★ MEN'S FREESTYLE ★

JOE RUSSELL

Manager of Men's Freestyle Programs

Joe Russell was hired as USA Wrestling's Manager of Freestyle Programs in May 2017, to work with new National Freestyle Head Coach Bill Zadick's staff. Since his arrival, the U.S. men's freestyle program has thrived at the Senior and age-group levels. Three U.S. teams won Senior World team titles (2017, 2022, 2023), including the first back-to-back World titles in American wrestling history. All five U.S. men's freestyle wrestlers entered won medals at the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan. Team USA also had three medalists during the 2024 Olympic Games in Paris, France. In the eight Senior World Championships during Russell's tenure, the USA has won an amazing 46 medals, including 20 gold medals, 12 silver medals and 14 bronze medals.

Russell has helped coach U.S. Senior and age-group tour teams to success as part of the freestyle staff, at the Olympic, World, Continental and Grand Prix levels. The U23 World Team program has been among the areas which Russell has focused. Since his arrival, the USA has won 20 U23 World medals, including seven champions. In 2025, the USA won the U23 World Team title, with four champions and five medalists.

Prior to joining USA Wrestling, Russell was the head coach at NCAA Div. I George Mason University. Russell led the program to 41 dual-meet victories and coached six wrestlers to eight berths at the NCAA Championships. Prior to his arrival at George Mason, Russell was a longtime assistant coach at the University of Minnesota where he helped guide the Gophers to three NCAA team championships and six Big Ten championships. In addition, he coached 11 individual NCAA champions, 31 individual conference champions and 84 NCAA All-Americans.

Russell has had extensive experience coaching the international styles with USA Wrestling throughout his coaching career. He was selected as coach for the U.S. Cadet Greco-Roman World Team in 1999 and 2013. Russell also coached three Junior Pan American Championship teams in freestyle and Greco-Roman in 2002, 2004 and 2014. While at Minnesota, as part of the Minnesota Storm coaching staff, he coached numerous national All-Americans at the age-group level in freestyle and Greco-Roman and did the same at George Mason with the Patriot Elite Wrestling Club. In 1999, he was named USA Wrestling University/UWW Junior Person of the Year.

In 2007, Russell was awarded the Medal of Courage by the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, which is given to a wrestler or former wrestler who has overcome what appear to be insurmountable challenges, providing inspiration to others. Russell was an elite high school wrestler in Gresham, Ore., and was already competing on the Senior level in Greco-Roman while still a teenager. In 1985, a motorcycle accident left Russell fighting for his life and facing severe damage to his body and brain. With amazing will and courage, Russell battled back through a long and grueling recovery process to not only return to the mat, but become a success in all aspects of his life.

J'DEN COX

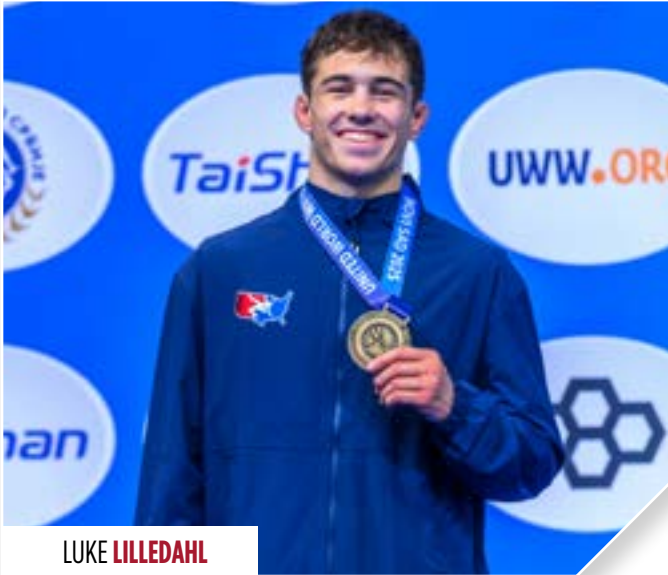

National Freestyle Development and Resident Coach

J'den Cox has served as the USA Wrestling National Freestyle and Development Resident Coach since 2024, after closing one of the more impressive competitive men's freestyle wrestling careers in recent history. After a memorable 2016, the year in which he burst onto the Senior stage and won the U.S. Olympic Team Trials, Cox immediately qualified the 86 kg weight class for the 2016 Olympics in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

After winning a bronze medal at the 2016 Olympic Games, he won his first World bronze medal the following year (2017). He then won back-to-back Senior World titles in 2018 and 2019, followed by another World bronze in 2021 and a World silver medal in 2022.

Cox retired from competition during the 2024 U.S. Olympic Team Trials, and has served USA Wrestling from a coaching perspective ever since. Over the past two years, Cox has managed the USA Wrestling Elite U20 Resident Program, which trains at the United States Olympic and Paralympic Training Center. Along with assisting National Freestyle Coach Bill Zadick and Manager of Freestyle Programs Joe Russell, he is integral in developing the USA Wrestling talent pipeline. Cox oversees Pan American and World Teams for the U.S. at the age-group (U15, U17 and U20) levels. Cox helped Team USA create history at the 2026 U20 World Championships where the men's freestyle team medaled at each weight class, which was the first time that was accomplished since 1988.

In addition to the U20 Resident Program, Cox also manages the men's freestyle Elite Accelerator Program, which identifies and serves as a developmental stage for athletes with Olympic potential in the U17 and U20 pathways.
