KAMAL BEY

Wrestlers to Watch

Kamal Bey | Greco-Roman | 82 kg

Kamal Bey will make his fifth appearance for the U.S. Greco-Roman team at the Senior World Championships in the coming days, this time in a new weight class. After competing at 77 kg in his previous four Senior World Championships and at the 2024 Paris Olympic Games, Bey will step onto the mat at 82 kg in Astana, Kazakhstan.

Bey finished in the top 10 in three of his four appearances at the Senior World Championships and placed 11th for the U.S. at the 2024 Olympic Games. Leading up to the 2026 Senior World Championships, he has competed internationally three times this year, once at 77 kg and twice at 82 kg. At 82 kg, Bey placed fifth at the Muhamet Malo Ranking Series tournament in February and won gold at the 2026 Pan American Championships in May.

Before 2026, Bey competed internationally at 82 kg twice, earning a medal at both events: a bronze medal at the 2024 World Military Championships and gold at the 2019 Dave Schultz Memorial International. After losing in the 77 kg repechage round at February's Zagreb Open Ranking Series tournament, Bey moved up to 82 kg for the Muhamet Malo Ranking Series tournament.

Bey secured his fifth World Team berth by winning the Senior Greco-Roman World Team Trials in April in Las Vegas, Nev., highlighted by two technical falls in the preliminary rounds. In the best-of-three championship round against Fritz Schierl, Bey won the opener by fall in 2:03, then earned a 4-1 decision in the second bout.

Helen Maroulis | Women's Freestyle | 57 kg

Helen Maroulis aims to defend her 57 kg World title in Astana, Kazakhstan, and enters the women's freestyle tournament ranked No. 2 in the world. Maroulis, one of the most decorated wrestlers in U.S. history, is one of three U.S. women's freestyle Olympians on the 2026 World team and the only returning World champion on Team USA's women's freestyle roster.

A three-time Olympic medalist and four-time World champion, Maroulis has already etched her name among the sport's greatest. A fifth World title would put Maroulis alongside Jordan Burroughs and Adeline Gray as the only U.S. wrestlers with five or more World gold medals. Maroulis is currently one of seven individuals in USA Wrestling history to have won at least four World titles, a list that includes Adeline Gray (6), Jordan Burroughs (6), Tricia Saunders (4), John Smith (4), Kyle Dake (4) and Kyle Snyder (4).

Maroulis will step onto the mat next week in Kazakhstan, making her first international appearance since the 2025 World Championships, where she won three of her four matches by fall and finished 4-0. She qualified for her 13th World Team by sweeping Amanda Martinez in the 57 kg best-of-three series at the 2026 Final X event in Newark, N.J. She has earned a medal in eight of her 12 Senior World Championships and has finished on the podium in each of her past four appearances.

Kyle Snyder | Men's Freestyle | 97 kg

Kyle Snyder will bring his veteran experience to the international stage once again for the U.S., this time in Astana, Kazakhstan, where he will make his ninth appearance at the Senior World Championships. Snyder is a three-time Olympian and a two-time Olympic medalist, with a silver medal at the 2020 Tokyo Games and a gold medal at the 2016 Rio de Janeiro Games.

Snyder's success has been consistent over the years, beginning with a gold medal at the 2015 World Championships — his first year on the World Team. Since then, he has medaled in seven Senior World Championship appearances and is one of seven individuals in USA Wrestling history to win four or more gold medals at the World Championships. Snyder has not finished outside the top three in an international tournament since 2024, when he placed fifth at the Paris Olympic Games. Before that, he had not missed an international podium since 2019.

Earlier this year, Snyder claimed third place at the Muhamet Malo Ranking Series event in Tirana, Albania, closing out the 97 kg bracket with a 4-1 record for a bronze medal. He then secured his ninth 97 kg World Team spot by defeating Stephen Buchanan in a best-of-three series at the 2026 Final X event in Newark, N.J., winning the first match, 5-2, and the third, 9-3.

Snyder is one of two returning World champions on the men's freestyle team, and a repeat World title would put him alongside Jordan Burroughs, who has six, as the only men's freestyle wrestlers in USA Wrestling history to win five or more World titles.

Storylines

Bassett, Leydecker, Turner Set for Third World Championships of 2026

Team USA brings a talented group of young wrestlers to the 2026 World Championships, with an impressive mix of veterans and youth. Among the young talent are Morgan Turner and Everest Leydecker, who will represent the U.S. women's freestyle team at 50 kg and 55 kg, respectively, and Bo Bassett, who will represent the men's freestyle team at 65 kg.

Turner, Leydecker, and Bassett will each make their third World Championship appearance in 2026, having competed at the U20 and U23 World Championships earlier this year.

Leydecker will make her Senior Worlds debut after winning gold at this year's U20 World Championships and bronze at the U23 World Championships. At 19, Leydecker has already proven her consistency at the highest levels, capturing back-to-back U20 World titles in 2025 and 2026.

Heading into her first Senior World Championships, Leydecker will look to put the world on notice with her ability to secure takedowns and close matches quickly.

Turner is a two-time U17 World champion and aims for her third World medal of 2026 after winning bronze at both the U20 and U23 events. She is a five-time age-group World medalist whose athleticism forces opponents into unfavorable positions. Turner will look to upgrade to gold at the World Championships in Astana, Kazakhstan, by grinding out wins or finishing matches early.

Bassett's Senior World Championships debut is highly anticipated following the 19-year-old's U20 World title in Slovakia in August. The three-time age-group World medalist will be eager to return to the mats after competing at the U23 World Championships in Las Vegas. Bassett's renowned pace and relentless pressure often wear down opponents, pushing them to exhaustion before finishing matches quickly.

Leydecker, Turner and Bassett will need every ounce of energy they can muster, as the trio most recently competed at the U23 World Championships, Oct. 12-18. Leydecker and Turner last competed on Oct. 16, helping the U.S. women's freestyle team finish second in the team standings. Bassett's latest match was on Oct. 17 in the preliminary rounds of the men's freestyle competition.

Maroulis, Dake, Snyder Each Seeking a Fifth World Title

Helen Maroulis, Kyle Dake and Kyle Snyder are each seeking a fifth World title at the 2026 World Championships in Astana. Only Jordan Burroughs and Adeline Gray have won more, with six World gold medals apiece.

Maroulis, Dake and Snyder have proven themselves prolific winners throughout their careers. In 2025, Maroulis and Snyder each won their fourth World title in Zagreb, Croatia, while Dake most recently won a World championship in Belgrade, Serbia, in 2022. Dake is a two-time Olympic bronze medalist, while Snyder is also a two-time Olympic medalist with one gold and one silver. Maroulis is a three-time Olympic medalist with one gold and two bronze medals, and the first women's freestyle Olympic champion in U.S. history.

Maroulis will make her 13th appearance at the World Championships, bringing a proven record that includes four gold, two silver and two bronze World medals. As a 16-year Team USA veteran,

CRISTELLE RODRIGUEZ-DOBLER

Maroulis aims to defend her 2025 World title after grinding out a win in the final 10 seconds of the 57 kg championship against Il Sim Son of North Korea. Maroulis has won medals in seven of her last eight appearances at the World Championships and holds World titles in three weight classes.

Dake targets a fifth World gold medal in the third weight class of his career. He has already won two World gold medals at 74 kg and two more at 79 kg, and now enters the 86 kg bracket after defeating 2025 World champion Zahid Valencia for the World Team spot. A win at his new weight would mark a feat no other U.S. men's freestyle competitor has achieved — World titles in three different weight classes. Dake has earned a medal in all five previous World Championship appearances, never finishing lower than silver.

Snyder has been a consistent, successful presence in the U.S. men's freestyle program. At the Senior level, he has won eight World medals, one at each of his World Championships appearances. After taking gold in his Senior Worlds debut in 2015, he won an Olympic gold medal in 2016, followed by his second World title in 2017. He then added two more World golds in 2022 and 2025, tying Dake and John Smith with four World titles and setting the stage for an opportunity to become a five-time World champion.

Maroulis will kick off her title defense on Oct. 27, when the 57 kg qualification rounds and semifinals will be held at Barys Arena in Astana, Kazakhstan. Snyder will seek to repeat his 97 kg World title run starting on Oct. 29, while Dake will begin his quest for the 86 kg title on Oct. 30.

Seven U23 competitors take the mats at Senior World Championships

Seven U.S. athletes will step into the spotlight at the Senior World Championships in Astana, Kazakhstan, after competing at the 2026 Galaxy U23 World Championships in Las Vegas, Nev., Oct. 12-18. The turnaround between the two events is unusually short this year because the Senior World Championships were moved from Manama, Bahrain, to Astana earlier this year, forcing a change in the competition dates.

Among the seven U.S. athletes who competed at the U23 World Championships are two Greco-Roman wrestlers, Otto Black (67 kg) and Joel Adams (77 kg); four women's freestyle wrestlers, Morgan Turner (50 kg), Cristelle Rodriguez-Dobler (53 kg), Everest Leydecker (55 kg) and Adaugo Nwachukwu (62 kg); and one men's freestyle wrestler, Bo Bassett (65 kg).

Adams and Black will each make their Senior Worlds debuts in Astana, both entering the tournament as five-time age-group World Team members. Black was a 2025 U23 World bronze medalist and a 2024 U20 World silver medalist. Adams won the U17 World title in 2022. Both Black and Adams are targeting the U.S.'s first Senior Greco-Roman medals since G'Angelo Hancock's 97 kg bronze in 2021.

Turner, Rodriguez-Dobler, Leydecker and Nwachukwu each secured a medal for the U.S. at the U23 World Championships. Rodriguez-Dobler and Nwachukwu will make their second Senior World Championships appearance after winning medals at U23 Worlds — gold for Rodriguez-Dobler and silver for Nwachukwu. Turner and Leydecker will make their Senior Worlds debuts after claiming bronze medals at the U23 World Championships. Leydecker also won a World title at the U20 World Championships in August, while Turner captured gold at the same event.

Bassett will also make his Senior World Championships debut and aims to win his second World medal of the year after securing gold at the U20 World Championships in August. A two-time age-group World champion and three-time age-group World medalist, Bassett has maintained a demanding competition schedule over the past several months. He won a U20 Pan American title in July, followed by a U20 World title in August, then won at Final X in September to secure his Senior World Team spot. He then competed at the U23 World Championships in October, all while preparing for his collegiate season and Senior Worlds in Astana.

Turnaround times for the seven wrestlers who competed at the U23 World Championships vary, but each competitor's turnaround remains short. Black last competed on Oct. 12 and will begin competition at the Senior World Championships on Oct. 26, while Adams stepped off the mats at U23 Worlds on Oct. 13 and returns to competition on Oct. 25. Turner and Leydecker earned their U23 bronze medals on Oct. 15 and will begin their Senior Worlds contention on Oct. 27 and Oct. 29, respectively. Rodriguez-Dobler and Nwachukwu concluded their medal runs at U23 Worlds on Oct. 16, and both return to action on Oct. 28. Bassett wrapped up his U23 Worlds bid on Oct. 17 and will begin his Senior title contention on Oct. 29.

Olympic Champions Headline Men's Freestyle 97 kg Field

Four Olympic champions are entered in the men's freestyle 97 kg field at the 2026 World Championships in Astana, Kazakhstan. Kyle Snyder will represent the U.S. in the weight class, which will also feature Abdulrashid Sadulaev of Russia, Akhmed Tazhudinov of Bahrain and Hassan Yazdani of Iran. The four wrestlers have combined for five Olympic gold medals and 14 World titles ahead of the star-studded battle for gold.

Qualification rounds and semifinals in the men's freestyle 97 kg division will be conducted on Oct. 29, followed by repechage and medal matches on Oct. 30.

Tazhudinov is the reigning 97 kg Olympic champion and was a bronze medalist at last year's World Championships. Sadulaev enters as a two-time Olympic champion, once in 2016 and again in 2020. Snyder and Yazdani secured their Olympic titles in 2016 — Snyder at 97 kg and Yazdani at 74 kg.

Snyder has been a staple of USA Wrestling over the past decade, winning a medal at every World Championships in which he has competed, including four gold, two silver and two bronze medals. He is also a three-time Olympian, winning gold at the 2016 Rio Olympics and silver at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. Snyder enters this year's World Championships as the reigning champion.

Sadulaev is the No. 8 seed and ranked No. 9 in the world ahead of the tournament. Of his seven World medals, six are gold, with the latest coming in 2024 at 92 kg. The two-time Olympic champion did not compete at last year's World Championships, but he has been active in 2026, winning gold at the Muhamet Malo Ranking Series tournament and the European Championships.

Yazdani, a three-time Olympic medalist, earned back-to-back silver medals at 86 kg in 2020 and 2024. He will compete in the 97 kg bracket after finishing second at the Zagreb Open Ranking Series event in February.

Although the 97 kg bracket is littered with Olympic champions, plenty of other elite competitors will fill out the rest of the field. Tazhudinov and Arash Yoshida of Japan will seek to improve on their 2025 bronze medals. Kazakhstan's Rizabek Aitmukhan, the 2023 World champion, will also compete, along with 2024 Olympic silver medalist Givi Matcharashvili of Georgia. Magomedkhan Magomedov of Azerbaijan is also entered after taking bronze at the 2024 Olympic Games.

Greco-Roman Looking for the Next Level

The U.S. Greco-Roman squad enters the 2026 Senior World Championships after placing 18th at last year's World Championships. Team USA tallied 18 points last year, scoring points in three different weight classes. Iran ran away with the Greco-Roman team title last year with 180 points, which was more than double second-place Azerbaijan, which finished with 89 points. Before last year's title, Azerbaijan won the last two team races, beating Iran, which finished second in both 2024 and 2023. Over the last five years, Türkiye (2022) and Russia (2021) have each won a team title. Russia's 2021 title was the last time it was included in the team race before this year.

Women's Freestyle Eyes Team Podium

Over the last 10 World Championships, the U.S. women's freestyle team has finished on the team podium eight times. Last year was only the second time in that span that Team USA missed the podium, scoring 83 total points, four behind third-place China. Team USA looks to return to the podium, where it has finished second four times and third four times over the past 10 championships. Japan has cemented its spot on top of the podium, winning each of the last 12 team titles. The last time Japan did not finish atop the team standings was in 2012, when China won the team title with 54 points, ahead of Japan's 43.

Battle Atop The Men's Freestyle Standings

A tight battle is expected for podium places in men's freestyle. Team USA (2022 and 2023),

Japan (2024) and Iran (2025) have all traded spots on the team podium the last three years. Across the last four years, the three countries have all finished in the top three together three times. The lone outlier was 2023, when the U.S. and Iran finished as the top two, but Japan was shuffled down to sixth. Russia is also slated to be in the mix for the team title this year as they return to the team standings for the first time since 2021, when it edged out Team USA (173-168) for the team trophy.

HERB HOUSE

National Greco-Roman Head Coach

Herb House was named USA Wrestling's National Greco-Roman Head Coach in January 2024 after serving as an Assistant National Greco-Roman Coach since December 2022. He brings experience as an international competitor, Olympic and World Team coach, athlete mentor and volunteer leader within USA Wrestling.

House's Olympic coaching experience includes three Olympic Games: Rio de Janeiro in 2016, Tokyo in 2021 and Paris in 2024. He served on the volunteer coaching staff in Rio, was the assigned Greco-Roman coach in Tokyo, and led the U.S. Greco-Roman program as National Head Coach in Paris.

House coached at the World Championships in 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2021, 2022, and 2023. His assignments included helping lead the 2018 U.S. U20 Greco-Roman World Team, as part of his work developing athletes across multiple age levels.

He has also coached U.S. teams at numerous other international competitions, including the 2014 Vantaa Cup in Finland, the 2016 World Club Cup in Hungary, and the 2016 Pan American Olympic Qualifier in Texas. In 2019, he was selected to coach the U.S. Greco-Roman team at the Pan American Games in Lima, Peru.

His coaching experience extends to high school wrestling. As an assistant coach at Coronado High School in Colorado Springs, House helped the program win its first team state championship in 2011.

Beyond coaching, House has served in several leadership roles within USA Wrestling. He served as First Vice President for much of 2022, served on the Board of Directors, and chaired the Greco-Roman Sport Committee. His responsibilities included helping develop procedures and select coaches across multiple age levels.

During his tenure as head coach, the U.S. Greco-Roman program has reached important milestones at the U23 World Championships. In 2024, Beka Melelashvili earned a silver medal, becoming the first American Greco-Roman medalist in the event's history. In 2025, Payton Jacobson and Otto Black won bronze medals, marking the program's first multiple-medal performance at the U23 World Championships.

USA Wrestling named House its 2017 Greco-Roman Coach of the Year. In 2022, he was inducted into the Illinois Wrestling Coaches and Officials Association Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a wrestler and coach.

Before entering coaching, House had a successful competitive career. He won a U20 World bronze medal in 1992 and a Senior Pan American Championships bronze medal in 1993. Competing for the U.S. Army World Class Athlete Program (Army WCAP), he placed fourth at the 1997 CISM Military World Championships. His domestic accomplishments include a U.S. Open championship, four University National titles, two Armed Forces titles, and six top-five finishes at the U.S. Open.

Throughout his coaching career, House has emphasized accountability, trust, mental preparation, and character development. He focuses on preparing athletes to compete at the highest level while helping them become disciplined, confident individuals on and off the mat.

JOE WARREN

National Greco-Roman Assistant Coach

Joe Warren joined the USA Wrestling staff in November 2025. Warren's support role has focused on program growth and athlete development.

Warren has spent time at the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Training Center teaching and mentoring Greco-Roman athletes and has supported the full-time national coaching staff in Colorado Springs and on the road at many domestic and international events and camps.

In his wrestling career, Warren won the 2006 World title in Guangzhou, China. He became the fourth American to win a Greco-Roman World title. He was a two-time Senior World Team member and represented the U.S. at Worlds in 2005 and 2006.

Collegiately, Warren was an NCAA Division I All-American for the University of Michigan. For his post-wrestling career, Warren transitioned to MMA, where he became a two-division champion at Bellator MMA.

★ WOMEN'S FREESTYLE ★

TERRY STEINER

National Women's Freestyle Head Coach

In 2002, shortly after the International Olympic Committee announced that women's wrestling would be in the 2004 Athens Olympics, USA Wrestling hired Terry Steiner as its first National Women's Coach. Since then, Steiner has built Team USA into an elite power in international women's wrestling and helped create opportunity that has led women's wrestling to become the fastest growing female sport in the nation.

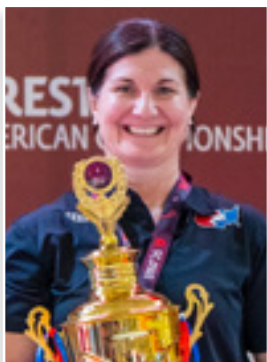

Steiner has coached at six Olympic Games, where he has coached 13 Olympic medalists including Olympic champions Sarah Hildebrandt (2024), Amit Elor (2024), Tamyra Mensah-Stock (2020) and Helen Maroulis (2016). He also coached three silver medalists and six bronze medalists.

At the World Championships, Steiner has consistently developed champions and medalists, and regularly scored podium finishes in the team standings. In the 22 Senior World Teams led by Steiner, the U.S. has won an astonishing 74 medals, with 22 golds, 17 silvers and 35 bronzes. The 22 golds were won by 10 women, with Adeline Gray winning six titles, Helen Maroulis winning four, and Tamyra Mensah-Stock and Amit Elor claiming two. Three U.S. Women's World teams have won seven medals (2003, 2022, 2023) and two teams had three champions (2019, 2022).

Under his leadership, the USA has also become a leader at the age-group levels in women's wrestling, developing numerous individual World champions and medalists, as well as teams which have reached the podium.

Previously, Steiner had worked as a Div. I assistant coach at Wisconsin and Oregon State. He was a talented Senior-level men's freestyle wrestler, a 1996 Pan American champion, who placed at the U.S. Open a number of times.

In college, Steiner was a 1993 NCAA champion for Iowa and helped lead the Hawkeyes to three NCAA team titles (1991, 1992 and 1993). A three-time All-American, he also placed third and fifth, wrestling for the legendary Hall of Fame coach Dan Gable. He was a two-time state champion at Bismarck Century High School in North Dakota. His twin brother Troy was also an NCAA champion at Iowa, a multiple state champion, and has been a successful coach at the college and international levels.

TONYA VERBEEK

National Women's Freestyle Assistant and Resident Coach

Tonya Verbeek joined the USA Wrestling Staff in May 2026 as National Women's Freestyle Assistant and Resident Coach.

Verbeek, originally from Grimsby, Ontario, Canada, is among the most credentialed athletes and coaches in women's wrestling. She joined USA Wrestling after a four-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa.

Verbeek served as an assistant coach at Iowa under head coach Clarissa Chun from 2022 to 2026 and was instrumental in Iowa's start as an NCAA varsity program. She helped coach nine individual Hawkeyes to a combined 12 national titles, plus two NCWWC team national championships and a runner-up finish at this year's inaugural NCAA Women's Wrestling Championships.

Prior to Iowa, Verbeek spent nearly a decade coaching the Canadian National Team with Wrestling Canada Lutte, where she coached women and men pursuing Olympic and World aspirations. She also spent several years coaching with the Brock Wrestling Club, where her own journey in the sport began. It was there that her coaching development was encouraged and supported, helping open the door to her coaching career.

Verbeek is a three-time Olympic medalist at 55 kg for Canada, securing silver in 2004, bronze in 2008 and silver in 2012. Additionally, she was the first Olympic medalist in women's wrestling for Canada.

From 1995 to 2011, Verbeek represented Canada at seven Senior World Championships, collecting bronze medals in 2005 and 2009, plus a silver medal in 2011. She was a two-time medalist at the World University Championships (2002, 2005) and a two-time Senior Pan American champion (2003, 2008).

Verbeek was named Ontario Athlete of the Year in 2005 and was enshrined in the St. Catharines Sports Hall of Fame in 2019. She was inducted into the United World Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2024.

BILL ZADICK

National Men's Freestyle Head Coach

Bill Zadick has been at the helm of the U.S. Men's Freestyle program as National Men's Freestyle Head Coach for 10 years, leading Team USA to unprecedented success at the World and Olympic level. He has coached three U.S. teams to Senior World team titles (2017, 2022, 2023), including the first back-to-back World titles in American wrestling history. Under Zadick at the 2020 Olympics in Tokyo, all five U.S. men's freestyle wrestlers entered won medals, with golds by David Taylor and Gable Steveson, a silver from Kyle Snyder and bronze medals from Thomas Gilman and Kyle Dake. During the 2024 Olympics, Zadick helped Spencer Lee claim silver, while Kyle Dake and Aaron Brooks won bronze.

During the eight Senior World Championships since Zadick has led the program, the U.S. has won an amazing 46 medals, including 20 gold medals, 12 silver medals and 14 bronze medals. Ten different athletes won the 20 gold medals. The 2022 World Team had a record eight finalists. In both 2022 and 2023, the men's freestyle team helped the USA win the overall medal count in all styles for the first time ever. In 2017, Zadick was named USOPC National Coach of the Year.

Zadick has been a part of USA Wrestling's professional national coaching staff since 2009, when he started as Resident Coordinator and Assistant National Coach. He has been apart of four Olympic Games as part of the USA Wrestling coaching staff, as he was involved in London in 2012, Rio de Janeiro in 2016, Tokyo in 2021 and Paris in 2024. During his stretch as USA Wrestling's Developmental Coach from 2011-14, Zadick helped build the United States into a World power in men's freestyle on the age-group levels. This success has continued to expand since he moved to the top freestyle position, with Team USA setting new records at the age-group divisions.

As an athlete, Zadick was a 2006 Senior World champion, and also competed on the 2001 Senior World Team. He is the last American to win a World title at his international weight class. His younger brother, Mike, brought home a silver medal from the same tournament. Zadick was runner-up at the U.S. Olympic Team Trials in 2000 and 2008 and won two U.S. Open titles. He was a U.S. Olympic Training Center resident athlete at the time he won his World title.

He was also a NCAA Div. I champion for Iowa in 1996 and two-time All-American, placing fifth in 1995. The Hawkeyes won three NCAA team titles during his career under the legendary Dan Gable. He won four Montana state titles for Great Falls High School, one of the state's greatest athletes in history.

In 2021, Zadick was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as a Distinguished Member, the highest honor.

JOE RUSSELL

Manager of Men's Freestyle Programs

Joe Russell was hired as USA Wrestling's Manager of Freestyle Programs in May 2017, to work with new National Freestyle Head Coach Bill Zadick's staff. Since his arrival, the U.S. men's freestyle program has thrived at the Senior and age-group levels. Three U.S. teams won Senior World team titles (2017, 2022, 2023), including the first back-to-back World titles in American wrestling history. All five U.S. men's freestyle wrestlers entered won medals at the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan. Team USA also had three medalists during the 2024 Olympic Games in Paris, France. In the eight Senior World Championships during Russell's tenure, the USA has won an amazing 46 medals, including 20 gold medals, 12 silver medals and 14 bronze medals.

Russell has helped coach U.S. Senior and age-group tour teams to success as part of the freestyle staff, at the Olympic, World, Continental and Grand Prix levels. The U23 World Team program has been among the areas which Russell has focused. Since his arrival, the USA has won 20 U23 World medals, including seven champions. In 2025, the USA won the U23 World Team title, with four champions and five medalists.

Prior to joining USA Wrestling, Russell was the head coach at NCAA Div. I George Mason University. Russell led the program to 41 dual-meet victories and coached six wrestlers to eight berths at the NCAA Championships. Prior to his arrival at George Mason, Russell was a longtime assistant coach at the University of Minnesota where he helped guide the Gophers to three NCAA team championships and six Big Ten championships. In addition, he coached 11 individual NCAA champions, 31 individual conference champions and 84 NCAA All-Americans.

Russell has had extensive experience coaching the international styles with USA Wrestling throughout his coaching career. He was selected as coach for the U.S. Cadet Greco-Roman World Team in 1999 and 2013. Russell also coached three Junior Pan American Championship teams in freestyle and Greco-Roman in 2002, 2004 and 2014. While at Minnesota, as part of the Minnesota Storm coaching staff, he coached numerous national All-Americans at the age-group level in freestyle and Greco-Roman and did the same at George Mason with the Patriot Elite Wrestling Club. In 1999, he was named USA Wrestling University/UWW Junior Person of the Year.

In 2007, Russell was awarded the Medal of Courage by the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, which is given to a wrestler or former wrestler has overcome what appear to be insurmountable challenges, providing inspiration to others. Russell was an elite high school wrestler in Gresham, Ore., and was already competing on the Senior level in Greco-Roman while still a teenager. In 1985, a motorcycle accident left Russell fighting for his life and facing severe damage to his body and brain. With amazing will and courage, Russell battled back through a long and grueling recovery process to not only return to the mat, but become a success in all aspects of his life.
