TOPICS DISCUSSED:

EVENTS

National Events

- The 2025 national event schedule is set to be finalized in the coming weeks/days. Information will be released on all channels once available.

Regional Events

- The East Coast Women's Championship is scheduled February 7 – 9 in Atlantic City, NJ. This is a great opportunity for our female boxers to get good, quality experience.
- The link to register, along with the fact sheet can be found here:

MEMBERSHIP

Official's Clinics

- Communicate to all clinicians to use the official USA Boxing transmittal forms when submitting to the national office.
- Ask clinicians to have attendees provide their updated address on the transmittal form. This allows us to keep updated membership records.

LBC Fee Schedules

- For those LBCs who held their annual meeting late in 2024, or early 2025, we are still accepting LBC fee revisions. Please email revisions to Rhona Brown at rbrown@usaboxing.org.

OPERATIONS

Local Policies

- USA Boxing continues to work on publicizing local policies. Please submit any local policies LBCs are looking to implement to Andrew Banuet, abanuet@usaboxing.org. Please note all local policies must be voted on by the board of governors and approved by the national office.
- LBCs who fail to comply with this process will not have their local policies recognized, defaulting to whatever is listed in the rulebook, sanction manual, or other USA Boxing literature.
- Will send another communication to LBCs in the coming days.

FINANCE

Year End Reporting

- LBCs must submit their year-end paperwork to Isabella by March 15th. For questions, please email icalcatera@usaboxing.org.
- Encouraged LBCs to submit ASAP, to take advantage of a free compliance sanction in 2025.

MISCELLANEOUS

Annual Meeting

- USA Boxing will host its annual shareholder meeting on January 22. During this meeting, USA Boxing will respond to questions submitted to us by shareholders within the USA Boxing community, along with giving a “Year in Review” for 2024.
- The deadline is January 9, 2025 at 11:50 pm MT.
- The link to submit questions/concerns can be found HERE.
- Meeting details will be sent members, via email, for those interested in joining.

RJ Committee Update

- The RJ Committee has been working with Enrique Orci in updating the supervisor’s report. With that, a new version is available. Please contact Lydia Razo (lydiarazo@rocketmail.com) or Shawn Reese (shawnreese77@yahoo.com) for the updated version.
- Currently, monthly COO meeting attendance averages 60%. Shawn asked LBC leaders to encourage their COO to attend these meetings, to help meet the goal of 100%.
- The revised RJ Manual and Consolidated manual should be available by the end of January.
- We continued to encourage LBC leadership to send as many officials to nationals as possible. This is a great opportunity to work at the highest level in the country, while bringing back information learned, improving our LBCs.

Participant Questions

1. What is the process to dispute the result/outcome of a bout?

USA Boxing does not overturn decisions. However, if there are suspicions a procedural error occurred, which impacted the outcome of the bout, it can be reviewed. Any such concerns should be directed to Mike Campbell, mcampbell@usaboxing.org. From there, it will be sent to the appropriate parties for review. The submitter will be contacted with the outcome of the review and what further steps need to be taken.

2. Does USA Boxing vote on venues for upcoming national events?

We explained a few of the factors that go into choosing venues for national events. However, we deferred specific questions and a better understand of the process to Mike Campbell.

3. Per Appendix F, the Elite Male 187lb. category shows a 10 lb weight differential, while the proceeding and preceding weight category show 15 lbs. Is that a typo?

Yes, that is a typo, and we will work to get it corrected.

4. Our LBC has a trailer that we use to transport our ring. However, the trailer belongs to the LBC, and not an individual. Thus, it’s making this hard to insure. Does anyone have advice.

We recommended speaking with a broker to help shop an appropriate business policy that will insure the trailer and its contents. Another LBC offered to help them find coverage.

5. We were asked whether the 2025 National Championship would have open registration, eliminating experience prerequisites.

That information was unavailable at this time and deferred to Mike Campbell for more information.
