Job Summary:

USA Artistic Swimming (USAAS) is hiring a senior national team assistant coach to aid in our continued efforts to develop a competitive and enjoyable team environment that will return USAAS to the international power we once were.

The position is a full-time employee position. The position will start on August 15.

The position will primarily be responsible for the technical skill growth in the country's highest-level athletes. While their physical development and skill enhancement are a vital part of this program the position will be responsible for making each of them a better teammate and well-rounded athlete.

This position will work directly with the senior national team head coach, assistant coaches and Chief of Sport in the development of the coaching plan and team strategy. The position will assist the head coach in implementing the plan and use their skill set to make the most positive impact on these athletes.

The position will require the coach to be located in Los Angeles, California.

The position will include domestic and international travel for events, programs, etc.

The position Reports to the senior national team Head Coach and Chief of Sport.

The assistant coach responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Develop the technical skills of the each individual athlete and ensure that the technical elements of each routine afford the athletes the best opportunity to excel.
- If applicable, write senior national team choreographies. Developing the artistic impression of each program.
- Collaborate with the Chief of Sport and head coach to prepare the training strategy for the season.

- Participate in the national team selection trials event.
- Assist in the development and communication training camp plan/calendar.
- Build strong lines of communication with the national team athletes.
- Keep track of the athletes' progress and report to the Head Coach.
- If applicable, collaborate with support staff (physician, physiotherapist, S&C coach, Acrobatics coach, nutritionist, sport psychologist and any other support staff)
