IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Please note an important update to this year's Nationals schedule regarding the US Junior Team Trials. In a change from previous years, the selection process will now be conducted in two distinct phases.

PHASE ONE

Phase One, focused on eliminations, will take place on Thursday and Friday, narrowing the field to the top four athletes in each Junior Elite category.

PHASE TWO

These top contenders will then advance to Phase Two on Sunday afternoon, where they will compete in double elimination finals. This new format will apply only to elite kata and kumite categories for athletes ages 12 to 17, and is designed to provide a more competitive, transparent, and efficient selection process.

As a result of this change, all Senior Elite divisions will run to completion on the day of their scheduled competition. A detailed Junior Team Selection Document outlining the full process and criteria will be released soon and posted on USANKF.org. We encourage all athletes, coaches, and parents to review it carefully once it is available.
