Who can be the verifying official:

- a Show Ski official with a current Senior rating (judge or scorer), or a Show Ski Test Administrator; or
- your club president or show director, even without a rating: enter their position or title when asked and the officials office will verify them.

Someone whose rating has expired is named the same way, with their position or title. A driver cannot witness their own hours, so with one verifying official that person

Enter the club and date of the first driver hours of the year. You may also submit a request for last years driver hours, if the driver didn't receive credits from last year.

This person does not hold a rating that qualifies them under the program's rules, so the officials office will confirm their position with your club before the request is processed.

The verifying official should be a Show Ski official rated Senior (judge or scorer) or a Show Ski Test Administrator. Anyone who is a member can be searched and named; a club president or tournament organizer without such a rating is accepted with their position or title and verified by the officials office. Whoever is named will be emailed that they were listed.
