

USA WRESTLING ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE (AAC)

WHAT

The AAC represents all three styles, protects athletes' rights, provides athlete feedback, establishes relationships.

WHY

The AAC exists for athletes to take part in the decision-making process with USA Wrestling. Athletes represent 33% of the board.

WHEN WHERE

Monthly/yearly zoom and in-person meetings. Continual athlete to athlete communication is key.

WHO

AAC Style-Specific Representatives	Nate Engel, Adeline Gray, Nick Gwiazdowski, Mike Macchiavello, John Stefanowicz, Mallory Velte	AAC Reps have 4 year terms; These current reps hold their position from 2024-2028
AAC Style-Specific Representatives	Xavier Johnson, Macey Kilty, Joey McKenna	AAC Reps have 4 year terms; These current reps hold their position from 2022-2026.
AAC At-Large Representatives	Beau Bartlet, Claire DiCugno, Erin Golston, Dymond Guilford, Robby Smith	AAC At-Large Reps have 2 year terms. These current reps hold their position from 2025-2027.
Team USA AC Representative	Veronica Carlson	Team USA AC Reps have 4 year terms. The current rep holds their position from 2025-2028