Number of competitors in each event of the preliminary round

| | Slalom | Tricks | Jump |
|--------------|--------|--------|------|
| Boys | 12 | 12 | 12 |
| Girls | 12 | 12 | 12 |
| Junior Men | 12 | 12 | 12 |
| Junior Women | 12 | 12 | 12 |

These numbers include overall skiers described in provision #1 below.

Method of filling the list

1. The #1, #2, and #3 ranked skiers on the April 2025 IWWF Junior and U21 World Ranking Lists in overall and posted as final will be selected first and seeded in the final running order according to the average of the two scores submitted in each event.
2. The remaining positions (up to twelve) in each event will be filled according to the average of the two scores submitted in each event.
3. All ties, whether for a seeding position or for the last qualifying position, will be broken by looking at first the highest individual score, then the World Junior and U21 Rankings Weekly rankings (last one before above score end dates).
4. Where there are still ties for a seeding position, the position will be determined by random draw.
5. Where there are skiers still tied for the last qualifying position, all will be entered.
6. If the event qualification process does not produce at least three (3) overall competitors in each of the four divisions for the preliminary round, additional overall competitors will be invited to compete in all three events of the preliminary round.

7. These overall competitors will be selected according to the highest overall score, second highest, etc., on the World Junior and U21 Rankings Weekly rankings (last one before above end dates) in overall and posted as final until three competitors are confirmed in each of the four divisions. Overall skiers will only ski in the final round if they make the cut for that round. The overall skier's highest event score from either round in each event will be used in the calculation for overall placement with the thousand points attributed to the top score by an overall skier only.
8. Using the above procedures, replacements will be made due to withdrawal by the end of the 6:00 p.m. mandatory skiers meeting at the host hotel the day before the start of the event. No further changes will be made after that time.

Final Round

The following number of skiers from Saturday's preliminary will advance to the final round held on Sunday: Boys/Junior Men Slalom (5), Tricks (5), Jump (5); Girls/Junior Women Slalom (5), Tricks (5), Jump (5).

Seeding for Sunday's final round will be based on Saturday's preliminary round results with the skier with the best score skiing last. Ties in seeding will be based on the competitor with the higher seeded position in the preliminary round. Ties for the last qualifying position will be run off according to IWWF rules. In the finals any ties other than first will be awarded to the higher seed. Ties for first in slalom will be a one-time run-off where the top skier has the choice to go 1st or 2nd and whoever skis 2nd must beat whoever skis
