

USA Table Tennis Sport Integrity Policy

July 1, 2026

Purpose

Integrity is fundamental to the credibility, fairness, and sustainability of sport. USA Table Tennis ["USATT"] is committed to upholding the principles of honesty, ethical conduct, and fair competition to ensure that all participants engage in sport in a manner that maintains public confidence and respect and is consistent with the International Olympic Committee's ["IOC"] Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions and the International Paralympic Committee ["IPC"] Code of Ethics.

This policy recognizes the increasing risks to the integrity of competitive sports, including corruption, match-fixing, misuse of insider information, and other inappropriate involvement in sports betting. Such behaviors can threaten the core values of sport and undermine the safety, welfare, and reputation of athletes, officials, organizations, and competitions.

This policy provides a framework for identifying, mitigating, and responding to integrity threats; outlines USATT's expectations, responsibilities, and prohibited conduct for all participants; and supports education, monitoring, and enforcement measures to protect the sport of table tennis from improper influence.

This policy does not attempt to provide an exhaustive list of every possible circumstance in which an integrity threat may occur. Instead, by promoting awareness, accountability, and transparency, this policy aims to safeguard fair competition, protect participants from harm, and preserve the trust of fans, stakeholders, and the broader sporting community.

Applicability of Policy

This Sport Integrity Policy is applicable to all of USATT's Covered Individuals. Where reasonable and relevant, USATT independent contractors will be required to comply with this policy in their contracts.

All Covered Individuals who participate in an Applicable Competition are required to comply with the integrity standards outlined in this Policy. Integrity obligations commence from the time a participant is selected, accredited, or otherwise becomes eligible to participate in an Applicable Competition and shall continue until all competition-related obligations, including post-event processes, have concluded.

Definitions

1. "Applicable Competition" refers to any event that is sanctioned, authorized, conducted, administered, or otherwise recognized by USATT, whether domestic or international; any event in which USATT selects Covered Individuals to participate; and any competition where the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee ["USOPC"] officially designates entrants. Applicable Competitions include, but are not limited to, (i) the Olympic and Paralympic Games; (ii) the Pan American and Parapan American Games; (iii) World Championships and other major international competitions where individual and/or team selection is made by USATT; and National Championships, trials, and/or other events that serve as qualification events for Applicable Competitions.

3. “Inside Information” includes: any non-public information that could impact competition outcomes or be used for betting or other wagering purposes. Examples of Inside Information include, but are not limited to, non-public injury or health information; team selection decisions prior to public announcement; competition strategies or tactics; and training or coaching details.
4. “Sports Betting” or “Sports Wagering” includes attempts to bet, offers to bet, agreements to bet, solicitation of betting, facilitation of betting, or inducing another person to bet or wager on an Applicable Competition, whether or not the wager is ultimately accepted, confirmed or settled.

Prohibitions and Requirements

1. Prohibition on Betting

Covered Individuals may not engage in any form of Sports Betting and/or Sports Wagering on Applicable Competitions. Covered Individuals are prohibited from engaging in any form of wagering, gambling, or staking of money or any other thing of value (whether monetary or non-monetary) in return for accepting or receiving (directly or indirectly) benefits or other things of value (whether monetary or non-monetary) based on the outcome, progress, conduct, or any other competitive aspect of an Applicable Competition.

Prohibitions on Sports Betting or Sports Wagering include, without limitation, wagers placed directly or indirectly: (i) with licensed, unlicensed, domestic or international betting operators (including through licensed or unlicensed sport books, fantasy sport leagues, and futures and/or prediction contracts); (ii) through intermediaries or third parties; or, (iii) through use of cash, credit, digital assets, or any other means of payment; and/or (iv) on behalf of oneself or another person on any Applicable Competition.

2. Prohibition on Manipulation

Covered Individuals may not influence, manipulate, or attempt to influence or manipulate any competitive aspect of an Applicable Competition so that the outcome or any other aspect of the competition is determined (in whole or in part) by something other than the competitors' merits.

Examples include but are not limited to: (i) the result, score, margin, or placing; individual or team performance; (ii) statistics, analytics, or conduct; (iii) specific actions or incidents occurring during a competition (including prop/spot bets); and (iv) decisions made by officials.

3. Prohibition on Disclosing Inside Information for Betting

Covered Individuals may not request or disclose, directly or indirectly, to any individual that does not have a legitimate need to know, any Inside Information that the individual knows or should have known might lead to the information being used for purposes of Sports Betting related to Applicable Competitions.

Examples of such non-public information include, but are not limited to, injury or health information, competitive strategy, and training or coaching details.

4. Prohibition on Indirect Violations

Covered Individuals may not direct, request, or encourage third parties to engage in the prohibitions set out in this policy on behalf of Covered Individuals.

Covered Individuals are prohibited from accepting or receiving benefits or other things of value in connection with sports betting, the disclosure of inside information, and/or competition manipulation.

Covered Individuals are prohibited from soliciting, facilitating, or encouraging other Covered Individuals to bet, wager, or gamble on Applicable Competitions, disclose Inside Information, or manipulate any aspect of an Applicable Competition.

Duty to Report and Cooperate

All Covered Individuals have a continuing obligation to promptly report to USATT and/or the USOPC any conduct, incident, approach, invitation, or information the individual knows, suspects, or reasonably should suspect, may constitute a violation of this Sport Integrity Policy or any related integrity rules (e.g., the International Table Tennis Federation's Code of Ethics and Conduct, the IOC/IPC Codes of Ethics). Failure to report such violations may be considered a violation of USATT's Sport Integrity Policy and may result in disciplinary action or related sanctions.

All Covered Individuals have a duty to cooperate with USATT and/or the USOPC in investigating violations of the USATT and/or USOPC Sport Integrity Policy. Cooperation may include sitting for interviews within a reasonable amount of time and providing documentation. Note that the failure to cooperate with any investigation may be considered a violation of the Sport Integrity Policy and subject the individual to sanctions.

Procedures for Reporting, Reviewing, and Managing Reported Integrity Concerns

Integrity concerns must be timely reported to USATT's Athlete Protection Officer, Compliance Officer, Chief of Staff, and/or Ethics and Judicial Committee.

Upon receipt, all integrity concerns will be directed to the Chair of USATT's Ethics and Judicial Committee for further review, investigation and resolution. All alleged violations of this Sport Integrity Policy will be handled pursuant to USATT's Complaint Resolution and Discipline Procedures:

Anyone reporting a perceived violation of this policy must be acting in good faith and have some basis for believing there may be a violation. Anyone who makes a false report knowing that it is false or that it has no basis is in violation of this policy and the USATT Member Code of Conduct. Such a violation may itself be reported under this policy and may lead to serious consequences.

USATT has a zero tolerance for retaliation against individuals who make good faith reports of potential ethical, policy, or legal violations, and who cooperate with investigations of the report. Consult the USATT Whistleblower Policy for more details.

Individuals may also report integrity concerns to the USOPC Integrity Portal and/or the IOC/IPC Integrity Hotlines. Upon receipt of any reported integrity concern involving Protected Competitions (as defined by the USOPC Bylaws), USATT's Athlete Protection Officer and/or Compliance Officer, or their designee, will immediately notify the USOPC Chief Ethics & Compliance Officer of the potential violation(s). USATT is committed to assisting the IOC/IPC, the ITTF, and the USOPC in ensuring integrity in sport.

Where the IOC/IPC, the ITTF, or the USOPC assert jurisdiction over an integrity review or investigation, USATT and all USATT Covered Individuals will fully cooperate with the review. USATT will recognize and enforce integrity-related sanctions issued by the IOC/IPC, the ITTF, and/or the USOPC.

Education and Training

The sports integrity landscape continues to change and evolve. To assist in promoting a culture of integrity, transparency, accountability, and respect for fair competition, USATT will provide Covered Individuals on an annual basis available materials designed to support education and awareness of key sport integrity issues, including, but not limited to: competition manipulation, sports betting, misuse of insider information, reporting obligations, and ethical decision-making. By building knowledge and practical understanding, the materials aim to equip athletes, coaches, officials, administrators, and support personnel with the tools to recognize integrity risks and to appropriately respond.
