- Should any 2023 Senior World Championship medalist or athlete that qualified the Olympic weight choose to compete at a different weight in which she medaled, she will NOT earn the automatic berth to the finals (Day Two) in the new weight category she enters.
- In this case, the athlete will compete in Day One of Trials.

2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling (April 19-20, 2024)

The tournament procedures for the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling will be posted at: <https://www.themat.com/team-usa/team-selection-criteria>

Determining seeds for the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials - Wrestling

The USA Wrestling National Team High Performance staff will determine the seeds for Trials.

- a. Seeding criteria for Trials will be published in the 2024 General U.S. Olympic Trials Procedures which will be posted on the USA Wrestling website a minimum of 60 days in advance of Trials.

Automatic berth to the semifinals

A 2023 Senior World Championship Olympic weight category medalist or athlete that qualified the Olympic weight will receive an automatic berth to the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials finals, at that respective weight (Day Two best of three series).

- If a 2023 Senior World Championship 50kg medalist moves to 53kg, that individual will receive an automatic berth to the semifinals of Olympic Team Trials Tournament (Day One).
- If a 2023 Senior World Championship 53kg medalist moves to 50kg, that individual will receive an automatic berth to the semifinals of Olympic Team Trials Tournament (Day One).

NOTE: The above two weight categories (50kg & 53kg) are specifically noted because the two weight categories are immediately adjacent to World weight categories.

A 2023 Senior World Championship non-Olympic weight category medalist will receive an automatic berth to the semifinals of Olympic Team Trials Tournament (Day One).

- A 2023 Senior World Championship non-Olympic weight category medalist may only move one World weight category up or down immediately adjacent to their 2023 World Championships weight in order to receive the automatic berth to the semifinals of the Olympic Team Trials Tournament.
- If a 2023 Senior World Championship non-Olympic weight category medalist moves more than one World weight category, she will not receive an automatic berth to the semifinals.

Weight category with a 2023 World Championship medalist or athlete that qualified the Olympic weight

1. Day One (Olympic Team Trials Tournament)

Day One will determine who will wrestle the 2023 World Championship Olympic weight medalist or the athlete that qualified the Olympic weight (the 2023 World Championship Olympic weight medalist or athlete that qualified the Olympic weight earns a bye-out of Day One, provided she is competing in the same Olympic weight category in which she won her World Championship medal or qualified the Olympic weight). The finals of Day One will be a single match. (For information regarding a delay to Day Two, see below.) All best of three matches will occur on Day Two of the Olympic Trials.

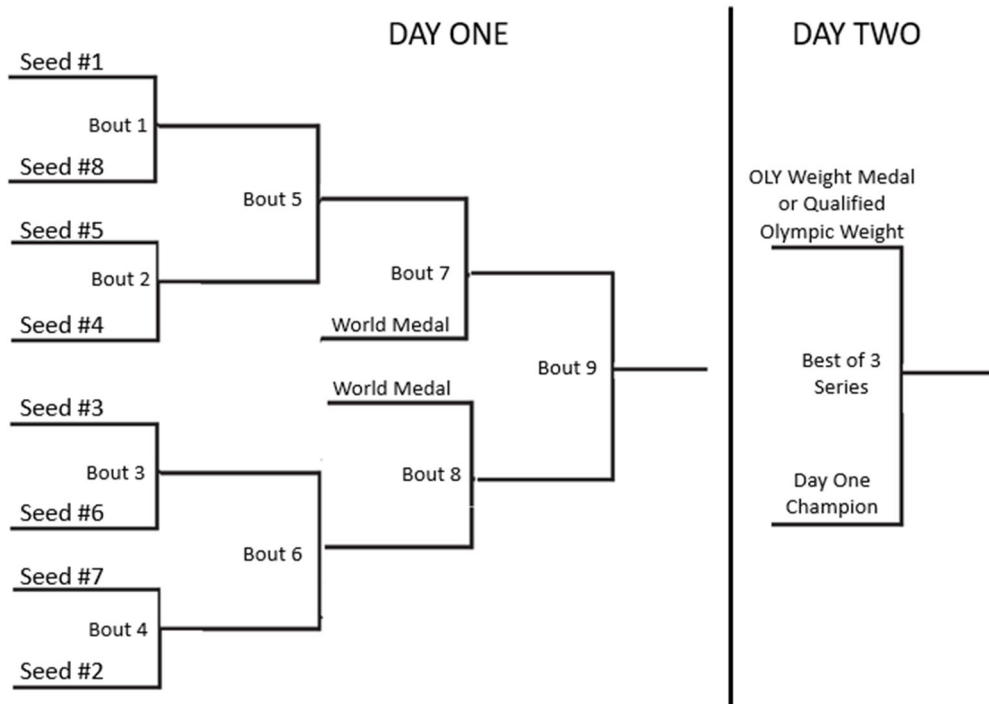

2. Day Two (best of 3 match final wrestle-off)

The winner of Day One will face the 2023 World Championship Olympic weight medalist or athlete that qualified the Olympic weight in a best of three matches.

Day One and Day Two of the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling will be held over two days, except when a request for delay is granted for Day Two. The winner of Day Two shall be USA Wrestling’s designee for the Olympic Games.

- If an athlete is unable to compete in Day Two of the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials, her opponent will be declared the winner of Day Two and will be USA Wrestling’s designee for the 2024 Olympic Games unless a request for delay due to injury has been granted. (For information regarding a delay to Day Two, see below.)

Figure 1: Example Bracket for Weight category with a 2023 World Championship medalist or athlete that qualified the Olympic weight.

Request for Delay Due to Injury

- Only a 2023 World Championship Olympic weight medalist or athlete that qualified the Olympic weight, who earned an automatic berth into the final wrestle-off, can request a delay for competing in Day Two for medical reasons at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled weigh-in time (no request for delay will be allowed, or granted, with less than 48 hours before weigh-in).
- The request must be submitted in writing to the Women’s Freestyle Sport Committee Chair for review, to include a written certification of the injury from a USA Wrestling-approved medical doctor. USA Wrestling’s approval of a medical doctor will not be unreasonably withheld.
- If a certified medical doctor’s note is provided within the appropriate timeframe to support an athlete that qualified the Olympic weight or a 2023 World Championship Olympic weight medalist’s request for a delay, the request for a delay in competition will be granted.
- If a delay is granted, the Women’s Freestyle National Coach with the two athletes involved shall determine the date for conducting Day Two of the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling. If an agreement cannot be reached by the two athletes involved, then the Women’s Freestyle Sport

Committee will determine the date and place. The wrestle-off, or Day Two, must be held prior to the sport entry deadline of June 7, 2024.

- If a delay is granted for Day Two and the 2023 World Championship Olympic weight medalist or athlete that qualified the Olympic weight is unable to compete for any reason prior to the sport entry date of June 7, 2024, the winner of Day One shall be declared the winner of Day Two and will be USA Wrestling's designee for the 2024 Olympic Games.
- If a delay is granted and the winner of Day One is unable to compete in Day Two for any reason prior to the sport entry date of June 7, 2024, the 2023 World Championship Olympic weight medalist or the athlete that qualified the Olympic weight shall be declared the winner of Day Two and will be USA Wrestling's designee for the 2024 Olympic Games.

A. Weight category does not have a 2023 World Championship medalist or athlete that did not qualify the Olympic weight category

1. Day One (Olympic Team Trials Tournament)

Day One will determine who will wrestle in the final on Day Two. The finalists of Day One will compete in a best of three series on Day Two to determine who will be USA Wrestling's designee for the 2024 Olympic Games.

2. Day Two (best of 3 match final wrestle-off)

The winner of the best of three series will be nominated to the Games.

- If an athlete is unable to compete in the best of three series, her opponent will be declared the winner of Day Two and will be USA Wrestling's designee for the 2024 Olympic Games.

C. Weight categories are not qualified into the 2024 Olympic Games prior to the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling

All Olympic weight categories will be contested at the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling, regardless of whether the weight category has qualified into the 2024 Olympic Games. If the weight category has not qualified for the Games, USA Wrestling would have to qualify the weight category at the following World Olympic Games qualifying tournament.

- World Olympic Games qualifying tournament (May 2024 @ Istanbul, Turkiye)
 - The winner of the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials - Wrestling will compete at the World Olympic Games qualifying tournament.

- If for any reason the U.S. Olympic Trials winner is unable to compete in this tournament, a replacement will be determined in accordance with Section 4.1.1.
- If the weight category is qualified via the World Olympic Games qualifying tournament, the winner of the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling will be USA Wrestling’s designee for the 2024 Olympics, regardless of who qualifies the weight category at the qualifying tournament.
 - If for any reason the U.S. Olympic Trials winner is unable to compete at the 2024 Olympic Games, a replacement will be determined in accordance with Section 4.1.1.

2. DISCRETIONARY SELECTION (if applicable)

- 2.1. Provide rationale for utilizing discretionary selection (if any): N/A
- 2.2. List the discretionary criteria and explain how they will be used (if any): N/A
- 2.3. Provide the name of the committee that will be responsible for making discretionary selections, along with a complete list of the members’ titles currently serving on the committee: N/A
 - 2.3.1 Specify the process that will be used to identify and handle any potential conflicts of interest involving a member of the committee.

All members of the selection committee must comply with the NGB’s conflict of interest policy, to include completing and submitting a disclosure form for review by the NGB’s ethics committee prior to convening the committee.

Any member of the selection committee who has an actual, possible, or perceived conflict of interest must disclose it to the NGB’s ethics committee prior to the start of the selection process and/or recuse him/herself from the review process and/or voting. A conflict of interest exists when a personal, family, financial, professional, club, team or business interest of the committee member poses a direct or indirect relationship, connection, or affiliation, past or present, with an athlete in contention for the applicable team selection that could compromise the committee member’s ability to participate in the selection process in an unbiased manner. If a conflict exists, the NGB’s ethics committee shall review the conflict and determine the committee member’s level of involvement (e.g., whether that committee member must recuse him/herself from participating in discussions and/or voting). For example, if it is determined that a committee member must recuse him/herself from voting, the ethics committee may still determine that a committee member who has relevant and necessary information with respect to athlete performance, for example a national team coach or high performance director, may, if requested by the selection committee, provide such information to the committee so long as such information is provided in a fair and unbiased manner and so long as the committee member with the conflict of interest does not vote toward the final decision. The committee member must not otherwise influence other members of the committee in the selection process.

Additionally, any person (including any potentially impacted athlete or coach of a potentially impacted athlete) with a good faith belief that a committee member has a conflict of interest may report the alleged conflict of interest to NGB's ethics committee. Reports may be made anonymously. No committee member shall retaliate in any way against a person who, in good faith, reports an alleged conflict of interest.

Any recused individual shall be replaced in accordance with the NGB selection committee appointment process.

3. REMOVAL OF ATHLETES

3.1 Prior to submitting athlete entries by name to the USOPC, USA Wrestling has jurisdiction over potential nominees.

An athlete who is to be nominated to the Team by USA Wrestling may be removed for any of the following reasons, as determined by USA Wrestling:

- 3.1.2 Injury or illness as certified by a physician (or medical staff) approved by USA Wrestling. If an athlete refuses verification of his/her illness or injury by a physician (or medical staff) approved by USA Wrestling, his/her injury will be assumed to be disabling and he/she may be removed.
- 3.1.3 Failure to participate in Mandatory Training and/or Competition as defined in Section 9 of these procedures.
- 3.1.4 Violation of USA Wrestling's Code of Conduct (<https://www.themat.com/membership/usa-wrestling-policies>).

The USOPC Games Delegation Terms are specific to each Games and made available during the Games registration process; the USOPC's Grievance Procedures and Hearing Process are found within the Delegation Terms. See "Delegation Events" at <https://www.usopc.org/governance/dispute-resolution> for more information.

3.3 An athlete may be removed as a nominee to the Team or from the Team for an adjudicated violation of IOC, WADA, IF, USADA and/or USOPC anti-doping protocol, policies, and procedures, as well as the U.S. Center for SafeSport Code, the USOPC Athlete Safety Policy and USA Wrestling's SafeSport policies, as applicable.

4. REPLACEMENT OF ATHLETES

4.1. Describe the selection and approval process for determining replacement athlete(s) should a vacancy occur:

4.1.1. prior to submission of Entries by Name to the Local Organizing Committee, including any applicable group or committee:

Weight category is qualified for the Olympic Games prior to the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling

If for any reason a replacement athlete is needed, the next ranked athlete from Trials at the weight category in question will be selected, up to and including the fourth-ranked athlete, from the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling provided the replacement is substantially completing the requirements of the Olympic Team Training Camp (see Section 9 below) as determined by the National Coach. Athletes will receive the Olympic Team Training Camp requirements via email at least 60 days in advance of the Camp.

Weight category is not qualified into the Olympic Games prior to the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling

If for any reason a replacement athlete is needed for the World Olympic Games qualifying tournament(s) in May 2024 (see Section 1.3.), the next ranked athlete from Trials at the weight category in question will be selected, up to and including the fourth-ranked athlete, from the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials – Wrestling provided the replacement is substantially completing the requirements of the Olympic Team Training Camp (see Section 9) as determined by the National Coach. While waivers for mandatory training will not be unreasonably withheld, all athletes nominated to the Team should arrange for appropriate time off from school, work or other obligations in advance of the training camp. Waivers will primarily be granted for injury or other similar incapacity or for a personal/family emergency. Requests for a waiver must be submitted in writing to the Women's Freestyle National Coach as far in advance as possible.

If needed, a weight control plan as mutually agreed upon by the athlete, National Coach and medical professional may be put in place in an effort to maximize athlete safety and performance. Failure to follow the weight control plan may be grounds for removal from the Team.
