

Meet Your ARP Team

Our team is here to support you, our valued members, in every step of your professional journey. We are excited about the future of rheumatology and are committed to working together to achieve our shared goals. Please contact any of us with your questions, ideas, or feedback.

Warm regards, The ARP Team

Janell Martin, CAE, Executive Director, ARP

Janell began her term as Executive Director, ARP, in March 2023. She has worked for the ACR for 14 years in the Registry, Membership, IT, and Education departments. Janell's primary responsibility is to oversee the development and advancement of the ARP, in coordination with the ARP Executive Committee. Outside of work, Janell enjoys reading, learning the piano, and spending time with her dog, Walter.

Courtney Cook, MEd, Sr. Specialist, ARP Programs

Courtney joined ACR and the ARP team in February 2025. Previously, she worked for seven years as the Director of Education and Volunteer Coordinator for a metro Atlanta non-profit. Courtney obtained both her Master's and Bachelor's degrees from the University of West Georgia. In her personal time, Courtney loves to read, go on nature walks, and saunter around local farmers markets, and she belongs to two local singing groups!

Anita Albritton, Specialist, ARP Governance

Anita worked at the ACR previously in Governance. She is what the ACR/ARP calls a "boomerang." Before starting this position, she worked at Morehouse School of Medicine as a Program Manager for over five years. She attended Florida A&M University for her bachelor's degree and is a proud alumna!

Kendra Allen, Coordinator, ARP

Kendra began her ARP journey in June 2023. Before becoming part of this team, she previously worked in sales, customer support, and user experience for over 10 years. Outside of work, Kendra enjoys DIY crafting, shopping, and binge-watching new shows as if it were an extreme sport!
