
The American College of Rheumatology, in collaboration with the Endocrine Society, is hosting an interdisciplinary webinar that brings together experts in rheumatology, endocrinology and pharmacy to explore the rapidly evolving role of GLP 1 receptor agonists beyond diabetes and obesity.

We invite you to join us as a sponsor for this unique webinar where speakers will examine emerging evidence for musculoskeletal and inflammatory conditions, discuss metabolic implications relevant to rheumatic care, and address access, safety, and ethical prescribing considerations. The session will conclude with a robust live Q&A to support practical, cross-specialty decision-making.

Target audience includes rheumatologists, Endocrinologists, Pharmacists, PT/OT and interdisciplinary clinicians, Obesity medicine and Primary Care Audiences interested in GLP-1s.
