

Agricultural Enclave Certification Application Package

Hillsborough County Florida
Development Services

Instructions to Applicants Requesting Agricultural Enclave Certification:

I. Prior to completing this application:

If you have any questions regarding your proposed project prior to submittal of this application, please email ZoningIntake-DSD@HCFL.gov.

Please ensure you gather items that will need to be submitted prior to submitting your application as incomplete applications will not be accepted. Some of the items necessary may be obtained as follows:

- Property information such as folio numbers, future land use, current zoning, section/township/range and other information may be obtained by using the Hillsborough County Map Viewer and searching for the necessary address in the search bar at the top.
- Sunbiz Forms may be obtained by visiting Sunbiz.org.
- A Copy of the Current Recorded Deed(s) may be obtained by visiting the Hillsborough County Property Appraiser's website at HCPAFL.org and conducting a Property Search. Search by folio number or property address and select the correct result. Scroll down to 'Sales History' and select the most recent 'Instrument Number'. Select one of the results to view and save the current recorded deed.

II. Specific Requirements for Agricultural Enclave Certification:

A. Demonstrate through the submission of competent substantial evidence that the site qualifies as an Agricultural Enclave, as defined in Section 163.3164(4), Florida Statutes which includes the following:

- Undeveloped unincorporated land continually used for bona fide agricultural purposes, as defined by 193.461, FS, for 5 years prior to development application.
- Owned or controlled by a single person or entity.
- Has public services available or scheduled in the Comprehensive Plan Capital Improvement Section sufficient to satisfy concurrency requirements or an applicant offers to enter into a proportionate share agreement for such improvements.
- Located in a county with a population of 1.75 million people or fewer as demonstrated by the most recent official estimate pursuant to Section 186.901, Florida Statutes.
- Does not exceed 1,280 acres but if surrounded on 75 percent of perimeter by existing or approved residential development that will exceed 1,000 residents per square mile, the size may not exceed 4,480 acres.
- Surrounded on at least 75 percent of its perimeter by either:
 - Land that has existing industrial, commercial, or residential development, or
 - Land zoned or planned for industrial, commercial or residential development and at least 50 percent of the land is developed with existing industrial, commercial or residential uses,
or
 - A combination of an interstate highway and land within an urban service area that is planned for industrial, commercial or residential development,
- Alternatively, in lieu of 75 percent requirement noted above, it can be shown that the site does not exceed 700 acres and is surrounded on at least 50 percent of its perimeter by land planned for industrial, commercial or residential development and is surrounded on at least 50 percent of its perimeter by a parcel or parcels within an urban service area,

B. Indicate proposed development density for the site submitted for certification as an Agricultural Enclave and demonstrate through the submission of competent substantial evidence that one or more adjacent parcels or an adjacent development permits the same density as, or higher density than, the proposed development..

- Application must demonstrate that one or more adjacent parcels or developments that are not Agricultural Enclaves permits at least the same density as the proposed development density or intensity.
- A certified Agricultural Enclave that is adjacent to the Urban Service Area must be treated as being within the Urban Service Area.
- Development standards, including uses, density, and intensity must be consistent with zoning or future land use category requirements that apply to one or more adjacent parcels or an adjacent development
- County can incorporate design measures to protect permeability of established wildlife corridors.

III. Application submittal:

The submittal requirements include specific requirements and their requisite forms necessary for a complete and sufficient application submission.

Documents must be submitted as separate PDF documents with a minimum image resolution of 300 dpi labeled according to their contents and submitted in a single email to ZoningIntake-DSD@HCFL.gov. Incomplete submittals will receive an email indicating the documents that are missing and will require a full resubmittal.

IMPORTANT: Review the entire application for completeness prior to submission. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

IV. Post-application submittal:

Within 30 days of receipt of an application for certification, the County is required to provide a written report detailing whether the land qualifies as an Agricultural Enclave at the proposed development density.

Within 30 days of the provision of the written report, the Board of County Commissioners must hold a public hearing to approve or deny certification as an Agricultural Enclave.

Certification must be either approved or denied within 90 days of application or land must be certified as an Agricultural Enclave.

If BOCC approves certification as an Agricultural Enclave, the property owner may submit development plans for single family residential housing. If a certified Agricultural Enclave is adjacent to an interstate highway, the land can be developed for commercial, industrial or single-family uses.

Within 30 business days of submittal of development plans for a certified Agricultural Enclave, The County and property owner must agree in writing to a development process and schedule. The County cannot require the owner to agree to a process that is longer than 180 days in duration.
