Moreover, each shareholder is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the particular tax consequences of the transaction to them, including the applicability and effect of all U.S. federal, state, local, and foreign tax laws.

Form 8937, Part II, Line 14

On November 13, 2025, Strategy Inc (f/k/a MicroStrategy Incorporated) (the “Company”) issued 10.00% Series A Perpetual Stream Preferred Stock (“STRE”) in an initial public offering. The STRE shares accrue cumulative dividends at a rate per annum equal to 10.00% on the stated amount of €100 per share, payable quarterly, if declared, on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year, beginning on December 31, 2025. Dividends on the STRE shares are payable solely in cash.

On December 31, 2025, the Company paid a monthly cash dividend of approximately $0.896 per share on the Variable Rate Series A Perpetual Stretch Preferred Stock (“STRC”) shares to shareholders of record as of December 15, 2025 (the “December 2025 Distribution”). Additionally, the Company paid a quarterly cash dividend of $2.50 per share on the 10.00% Series A Perpetual Strife Preferred Stock (“STRF”), approximately €1.33 per share on the STRE shares, $2.00 per share on the 8.00% Series A Perpetual Strike Preferred Stock (“STRK”), and $2.50 per share on the 10.00% Series A Perpetual Stride Preferred Stock (“STRD”) (the STRC, STRF, STRE, STRK, and STRD shares collectively are the “Preferred Shares” and the distributions, together with the December 2025 Distribution, are the “Q4 2025 Distributions”) to shareholders of record as of December 15, 2025. The Company expects that the Q4 2025 Distributions will each be a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of a preferred shareholder’s tax basis in each share of Preferred Shares held by such shareholder.

Form 8937, Part II, Line 15

The character of a distribution as either a dividend or return of capital for federal income tax purposes depends on the Company’s estimate of current and accumulated earnings and profits

("E&P") for its full tax year in the year of the distribution. The information set forth in this Form 8937 is based on estimates as of the time this form is filed with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") or made publicly available in lieu of filing with the IRS. Estimates can change throughout the year and, to the extent the Company's estimates of E&P change following the filing of this Form 8937, the Company will file a corrected Form 8937 for impacted distributions pursuant to applicable Treasury Regulations.

Based on current estimates, the Company will have zero current and accumulated E&P in its taxable year ended December 31, 2025 and, accordingly, it is expected that 100% of the Q4 2025 Distributions on the Preferred Shares will be characterized as a return of capital for federal income tax purposes, to the extent of a recipient shareholder's tax basis in their respective Preferred Shares. A shareholder's tax basis in each class of Preferred Shares will be reduced by the amount of the distribution made with respect to such class of Preferred Shares under section 301(c)(2) of the Code. Any amount of the Q4 2025 Distributions paid in excess of a shareholder's tax basis in its applicable class of Preferred Shares will be treated as capital gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes under section 301(c)(3) of the Code.

Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors to determine the income tax consequences for their specific situation. The Company is providing this Form for informational purposes only and not as legal or tax advice.

Form 8937, Part II, Line 16

Pursuant to sections 301(c) and 316(a) of the Code, the taxability of the Q4 2025 Distributions to each recipient shareholder is based on estimates of the Company's current and accumulated E&P for its 2025 taxable year, as computed for U.S. federal income tax purposes at the time of the distribution. The Company's estimated current and accumulated E&P applicable to the Q4 2025 Distributions supports the disclosure that the entire amount of the Q4 2025 Distributions made on December 31, 2025 should be characterized as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of each shareholder's tax basis in its applicable class of Preferred Shares under section 301(c)(2) of the Code, followed by treatment as capital gain to the recipient shareholder under section 301(c)(3) of the Code to the extent the amount of the distribution on the Preferred Shares exceeds such shareholder's tax basis in such Preferred Shares.
