

FRIDA KAHLO

FINE ARTIST

Frida Kahlo was a Mexican artist best known for her self-portraits. She overcame many obstacles to follow her dream of becoming a fine artist.

- She was encouraged by her father to be intellectually independent.
- Frida once dreamed of being a doctor but later became interested in painting.
- She lived in Mexico City, New York, Detroit, San Francisco, and Paris.

fun fact

Frida loved wearing bright colors and flowers in her hair.

CIRCLE THE WORDS THAT DESCRIBE FRIDA AS A ROLE MODEL

- |          |             |             |          |
|----------|-------------|-------------|----------|
| creative | powerful    | confident   | painter  |
| talented | trendsetter | tough       | colorful |
| artistic | unique      | outspoken   | iconic   |
| strong   | driven      | imaginative | original |

“ I was a child who went about in a world of colors. ”

fun fact

Frida was a big animal lover. She had dogs, spider monkeys, parrots, parakeets, macaws, chickens, a fawn, and an eagle.

Frida's world inspired her art—even her pets made it into paintings. If you had your own art show,

WHAT WOULD YOU CREATE?

“
To paint is the most terrific thing that there is.

”

Barbie

CELEBRATES
ROLE MODELS