

LuvibubsTM Grown With Luv!

Copyright © 2026 The Moose Group

All rights reserved.

Story by Jenni Townsend

Book design by Abigail Udell

Grown with Luv!

Noa was in a funk. Rainy days made her feel too small, too glum and always very HARRUMPHY!

“Today is the worst! Harrumph!”
she cried.

When the clouds had passed, Mama took Noa's hand and they went into the garden.

She gave Noa four seeds. "The rain made the soil ready for planting, why don't you tell the seeds your troubles?"

Noa held the seeds one by one, whispering her worries into them and filling each one with love.

Then she found a nice sunny spot and planted the seeds in their own pots. She gave them a good drink of water.

Huh? Was the soil already wiggling?
Something was growing!

Noa blinked, she couldn't believe her eyes: four seedlings popped out of the ground!

Suddenly out of the dirt grew a purple Luvibub! The baby took one look at Noa and leapt into her arms for a cuddle. Noa felt so much better already.

“Hi Noa! I’m Sweetheart Sophie.
You seemed like you needed a big hug!”

Noa smiled, “Thanks Sophie. It’s so sweet of you to notice!”

Next, a pink Luvibub popped up, “Hey! I’m Kind Kira!” Kira’s face lights up suddenly, “That looks like the most delicious strawberry ever!”

She picks a lovely big strawberry and splits it in half, “Here!”

Noa beams, “Yum! Thank you for sharing with me!”

Just then, a blue Luvibub grew out of the ground,
“Hello! My name is Brave Bella!”
Bella suddenly yelped, “Watch out! Right behind you is a spooky spider!”

Bella went right up to the spider, “Shoo spider, don’t you frighten my friend!”

“Wow Bella! You are really brave.” said Noa.

The last seedling burst from the soil like a ray of sunshine.
It was a yellow Luvibub! "Hi! I'm Cheerful Charlie! Wow!
What a beautiful day!"

Noa looked unsure, "But everything's all wet."

"Rain is beautiful too! You can't grow flowers without it."

Noa smiled, "I do like flowers."

Noa had such fun playing with her new Luvibubs and no longer felt so hurrumphy.
And they all had something special to teach her!

She learned to care about others like Sophie.

And to share things with friends like Kira.

She learned to find her own courage like Bella.

And most importantly,
how to look for happy little things like Charlie.

With all her new skills, Noa now knows that even a bad day is what you make it!

And when you put love and care into growing something...
you grow yourself!

Did you find the little friendly bee hiding on every page?